Merger Brings Large - Scale Coin Business

Large coin transactions will be handled exclusively by Windsor Galleries, Inc., a newly-formed New York corporation, headed by Q. David Bowers, Binghamton, N. Y., and John N. Rowe, Dallas, Texas.

The new corporation has no showrooms or offices. All coins are stored in a bank vault and are sold by mail only according to Q. David Bowers, whose Bowers Coin Company serves as the mailing address.

Windsor Galleries, Inc. will in no way affect the operation of either principals' established businesses.

Bowers Coin Company, 70 Court Avenue, Binghamton, N. Y., has been in business since 1954. John N. Rowe, 3313 Caruth, Dallas, has been dealing since 1956.

The new firm will handle intact collections, bulk $20 gold in lots of up to 500 pieces. It has recently advertised a mail bid sale offering quantities of coins not usually available on the coin market.

Russell War Exhibit Shown

The National Museum of the Smithsonian Institution has on display, this week, in observance of National Coin Week, more than 500 pieces from the Civil War collection of E. Ward Russell of Silver Springs, Md.

Included are many rare varieties of both the patriotic and merchant token series. Pieces struck in copper, brass, nickel, copper-nickel, white metal, silver, lead and zinc from 16 different states are in the display.

Scrapbook Changes Publication Date

Starting with the June issue, the Numismatic Scrapbook magazine will be published the first of the month instead of the 20th.

The Hewitt Brothers, publishers of the numismatic "slick" magazine, said expanding newsstand sales has made it imperative that the publication be the first part of the month.

Space Man Medal Ready For Market

A "Man In Space" commemorative medal is being struck by the Coin-Of-The-Month Club it was announced today following the news announcement that a man has orbited the world in space.

The club has had the "Space" medal in preparation for over four months readying it for the announcement of the first successful space flight. Final engraving is being completed this week and the medals will be struck later in the week and be ready for delivery within seven to 10 days.

The "Man In Space" commemorative is a special issue by the Coin-Of-The-Month Club, and is available to both members and non-members.

The quantity of medals struck will be limited to 5,000 sterling silver, 10,000 nickel silver, and 250 in gold.

Designs for the medal were taken from drawings released by the Russians prior to the flight and then confirmed after the successful launching. The obverse design is dominated by a sculpturing of the space capsule with a cut-away section showing the man inside the capsule. The reverse recounts the statistics of the historic flight.

The number of "Man In Space" medals one person can purchase will be strictly limited, and there will be no exceptions made. Sterling silver will be limited to eight per person and nickel silver orders will be limited to 10 per person. An individual may purchase only one gold medal, thus eliminating the possibility of speculating on the issue.

In keeping with the policy of the Coin-Of-The-Month Club, the prices of the medals are being kept as low as possible. The nickel silver medal will sell for only $1.25, making it within the reach of the vast majority of collectors.

The sterling silver "Man In Space" medal will sell for $3.75 each if one is purchased, less if purchased in multiples. The gold

World Currency Trends Emerge From New Book

A double struck 1879 proof five cent piece — a find by the Four Lewises of St. Joseph, Mich.

Michigan Father And Sons Find Doublestrike Five Cents

Recent publicity concerning an overdate 1893 dime caused many a numismatist to reexamine his collection — and the Four Lewises, of St. Joseph, Mich., report what they believe is an exciting find, a doublestruck 1879 proof five cent piece.

Dr. Edward W. W. Lewis, pastor of the First Congregational Church at St. Joseph, and his three — collector sons, Matthew French Lewis, Mark Andrew Lewis and Edward Turner Lewis, made the discovery which they term as a possible re-cut from the 1878 dies with the result of an overdate 1879/1878 shield nickel.

Dr. Lewis, a numismatist for the past 20 years, said the Walter Breen discovery of the overdate 1893 dime caused them to look over some coins the "Four Lewises" have collected over the years.

Dr. Lewis paid tribute to Breen and Q. David Bowers, describing them as "sharp and scholarly young men."

The Four Lewises would like more information regarding their find — they would like to learn if there are other doublestruck or overdate 1879 nickels.

"We are reasonably sure that there are tens of thousands of the 1955 doublestruck cents and that there are thousands of the 1942/1 dime," they commented as they sought further information.

Major Move To Decimal System Noted

Low denomination paper money is being eliminated throughout the world in favor of coins, especially aluminum pieces, because of convenience and cost of production.

This fact was revealed in the publication of the new reference, "World Coin and Currency Handbook," by George J. Sten and Dwight L. Musser — a unique study containing information, not to be found in any other volume for numismatists in the English language.

The specialists, at the conclusion of extensive studies, also noted a movement toward the adoption and consideration of adopting the decimal system as a basis for currency throughout the world.

There is a trend toward paper money of smaller sizes, approximately the size of the U. S. dollar, in foreign countries, and a trend away from the concept of having a different size note for each denomination.

Other tendencies noted by Sten and Musser included a marked increase in the use of aluminum as a coinage metal; inflation making low denomination currency useless, and in some cases requiring an entirely new system to be inaugurated.

They discovered a strong sense of nationalism, requiring new currency for new nations and the

Campaign To Help La Velle Gets Started

Victor La Velle has received $410 (face value) in coins and $65 in cash and checks, according to a last-minute check before Coin World's press time, with coins still coming in each mail.

"I received nearly $200 worth of coins . . . $50 in cash to get me started again — and $1,000,000 worth of friendly encouragement," Victor L. La Velle, 30, Los Angeles, Calif., amputee who was robbed recently, disclosed today.

"Thank you seems like a very inadequate thing to say to express all the gratitude I feel toward Coin World and its readers at this time," the Californian said as he told how readers rallied to his assistance.

(La Velle had the nucleus of a coin dealership started when a sneak thief broke into his home at 4254 Normal Avenue, Los Angeles, 29, and took the $166.50.)

(La Velle, who lost a leg in an accident 10 years ago, was involved in an auto accident recently. It took the lives of his two small sons and smashed his artificial leg beyond repair. He pinned his hopes of earning a living on a coin dealership.)

On April 6 Coin World first published an account of La Velle's tragic plight. Pledges of assistance began to pour in as soon

Canadian Guide Book For 1961-62 Released

(Editor's Note: Harold Don Allen of Montreal, one of Canada's leading numismatists who has earned an international reputation for his numismatic writings, has reviewed "The 1961-62 Guide Book of Canadian Coins, Paper Currency and Tokens" at the request of its authors, H. C. Taylor and Somer James. Allen, life member of both the Canadian and American Numismatic Association, is one of the foremost authorities himself on the Canadian numismatic scene.)

By Harold Don Allen

A first reaction on leafing through the new "Guide Book" just off the press, must be a mixed one of being utterly overwhelmed by the quantity and diversity of the listings and the illustrations and of being, on reflection, just a bit bewildered as to how Canada's numismatic fraternity got along before so much of the heritage with which it concerns itself could be found documented between the covers of a single, quite remarkable, and surprisingly inexpensive book.

(The book, in its third edition is published in Winnipeg by the Canadian Numismatic Publishing Institute. The 264-page volume, liberally illustrated, wire bound, costs $1.95.)

The "Guide Book" in its present form is, of course, a reflection of the astronomical jump in interest in the coin hobby in Canada and in interest in Canadian numismatics far beyond Canada's borders (a moment's browsing in recent volumes of the New Zealand Numismatic Journal, for example, should suffice), but the matter is hardly so simple: there can be no doubt that the "Guide Book", in its immensely popular first two editions, has done much to promote the very interest on which future editions will build.

Be that as it may, the current product, the Third Edition, is a most remarkable addition to Canadian numismatic literature. Hundreds of new items fill the record 264 pages: it would be hard to imagine so many phases of a country's numismatics receiving such full treatment in a single book, especially one designed as a portable reference, easy to use, and selling at a popular price. There certainly is no other book on Canadian numismatics that so comprehensively covers the series.

The reader familiar with the two previous editions will recognize and approve of the manner in which the new "Guide Book" incorporates their best features, while expanding key material, opening up whole new facets, and adding a definite new look to several sections.

The most interesting single innovation is the replacement of a large number of the line drawings of the token series—familiar from the Breton classic—with the

No effort has been spared to prepare a memorable convention in Atlanta when the American Numismatic Association convenes there August 16. Members of the arrangements committees include, left to right, Robert C. Davis, convention program

Long hours of preparation for the 70th annual American Numismatic Association's convention, to be held August 16-19 in Atlanta, have been spent by these key people, members of the host Atlanta Coin Club. Seated, left to right, are George M. Todd, general chairman; Mrs. Edwin Harrison,

medals, which are limited to one per person, sell for $62.50.

Coin-Of-The-Month Club also reports they are preparing a booklet to go with the medal. The eight-page booklet will give additional historic facts and pictures relating to the space flight, and will be sent free to everyone ordering the commemorative.

At the same time they announced a series of "Space Age Commemoratives" which will be issued from time to time throughout the next year, and again whenever a space achievement of significant magnitude warrants an additional issue.

Scheduled for the series are medals commemorating—

Sputnik I, the first artificial earth satellite which was put into orbit October 4th of 1957.

Explorer I, the first United States space vehicle to orbit the earth.

Project Mercury Space Program, and other significant space accomplishments.

All the space issues will be strictly limited as to number struck and will be offered first to those who order the first in the series. All orders will be filled in sequence as they are received.

Despress Will Go On Trial

Albert C. Despress, Montreal coin dealer, arraigned April 12 in the Canadian city on charges of fraud, entered a plea of not guilty, and is being held for trial, according to a news release from Quebec.

Despress was alleged to have sent certified checks for coins—but the checks reportedly were "self-certified."

The Montreal arraignment conducted in French, was attended by Dorothy Furlong, a secretary at the Bowers Coin Company, Binghamton, N. Y., who testified on behalf of Q. David Bowers, one of the Americans who received one of Despress' checks.

The Professional Numismatists Guild took an interest in the case; several of their members received checks from Despress. P.N.G. paid for Miss Furlong's trip to Montreal.

Youngstown Club Attendance Soaring

Next meeting of the Youngstown, Ohio, Numismatic Club has been set for Thursday, May 4, at Krakusky Hall, 2205 South Avenue, in Youngstown. The meeting is to start at 8 p.m., to be followed by an auction at 9 o'clock.

elimination of all symbols of colonialism from currency. In currency design there is increased use of local scenes and national symbols instead of classical and allegorical figures.

These fascinating facts plus the complete world coin and currency listing in a concise, easy to read style are found in the book, published by Manor Press, Dunbar, West Virginia.

"Purpose of the handbook is to provide in one convenient location, as accurately as possible, a listing of the coins and paper money now in use throughout the world," the authors pointed out.

They assembled the material from many different sources — personal collections, private informational files, correspondence with individuals in other countries, travel in foreign lands, governmental bureaus, personal interviews.

They studied numismatic publications, atlases, maps, annual and general reference books plus books pertaining to foreign exchange, economics, history, geography, financial institutions, philatelic publications and general news periodicals.

From this emerged the 20-page study and guide containing in addition to a listing of the coins and paper money general location, exchange value and institution of issue.

The listings comprise an up-to-date "Gazetteer."

Sten and Musser chose to list independent nations which have their own currency, those which do not, non-independent countries (colonies, protectorates, trusts), some formerly independent countries which had their own currency, but lost their independence after World War II, geographic and political areas which share a common currency and some islands, groups of islands and "places" to add to the value of the entries.

Canadian Combine Mail, Michigan Find

Egolf Sale Combine Mail, Public Auction

The Howard D. Egolf collection of United States gold, silver and copper coins and paper money, is to be sold at public and mail bid auction on May 5 and 6, in connection with the Metropolitan New York Numismatic Convention at the Park Sheraton Hotel, with Stack's as the cataloguer and auctioneers.

More than 1500 lots comprise the sale, some of which was originally collected by Egolf's father before the Civil War. Included are examples from every denomination and series, together with patterns and transitional coins.

The convention is scheduled for May 4 through 7, with the Norwalk and Queen's County Coin clubs as co-hosts. Participating clubs include the New York Numismatic Club, Brooklyn Coin Club, Bronx Coin Club, New Jersey Numismatic Society, Westchester County Coin Club, Fairfield County Numismatic Association, Long Island Coin Club and the Bergen County Coin Club.

General chairman of the convention is Harold Schornstein.

An 1858 Canadian off-center 10 cents was recently obtained by Milton L. Greenebaum, owner of the Lester Stamp and Coin Company of Saginaw, Michigan.

The rarity was purchased from a Saginaw individual who had a small collection.

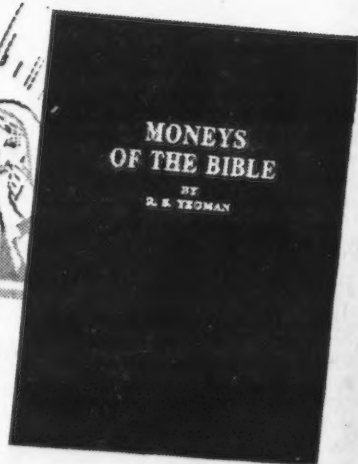

Currently Greenebaum is seeking to establish the value of the mint error; he pointed out the scarceness of Canadian errors and the extraordinary condition adds to the uniqueness of the find.

Observers who recall the steady perfection of Canadian coinage over the years with relatively few known mint errors believe the die shifted to cause the Greenebaum find.

La Velle Campaign Grows

as the papers reached the readers. "I had no idea that coin collectors and dealers would rally to the aid of a fellow collector en masse as they did," said a grateful La Velle.

"What more can I say?" La Velle said as he expressed his gratitude "to each and every person who helped brighten up my life."

"Dealers sent me choice coins from their own stocks and private collectors searched out all their duplicates."

"I have never known such generosity before and it has touched me deeply," La Velle said.

In a later communication dated April 16, in which La Velle disclosed a revised coin total of $410 and the $65 in cash and checks, a new note was apparent in his letter.

"I will keep in touch with Coin World and let you and your readers know how I am making out. I am sure they will want to know the results of all this, as to whether or not I receive enough coins to open a shop — and it looks as if I may — and where it will be located, etc."

"I am deeply indebted to Coin World for the coverage they have given me and to the dealers and collectors all across the United States who have so generously contributed to the rebuilding of my coin collection."

"Everyone is trying so hard to help me realize my dream of opening a coin shop that you would almost think that it was their dream, too. I am really amazed!"

"I have even received uncirculated rolls of Canadian coins from M. V. Rasmussen (Trucoin), a dealer in Calgary, Alberta, Canada."

"I have received nearly every type of U. S. coin there is. I even received a beautiful collection of obsolete paper currency from Hank Bieciuk in Kilgore, Texas (who, incidentally, was the very first to write and offer his help)."

"Others who deserve a lot of credit include Richard Duzynski, an Altadena, Calif., dealer and the Southern Coin Exchange of Covington, Ga., who sent me brilliant uncirculated rolls of scarce date coins. This sort of generosity leaves me speechless."

"I wish I could list everyone who has been so good to me but it would make an awfully long list. My deepest thanks has already been sent to anyone that I have not mentioned here for I have answered every letter and thanked every one of your readers for the coins, encouragement or advice that they sent."

"Did you know that you had such a wonderful group of readers? People like the Hobby House in Missoula, Mont., sent me some gold pieces, the E. Z. Coin and Currency Co. of Clinton, Iowa, offered to sell me their coins at a wholesale figure for me to retail, thus giving up their own profit, Richard P. Goodson, a Los Angeles distributor of wholesale coin supplies, has offered to give me some coin supplies to help me to get started, the Seven Idols Shop of Albuquerque, N. M., sent me a 1914-D Lincoln cent in fine condition and a roll of 1939-D nickels. The list goes on and on."

I have an awful lot to be grateful for. . ."

Further examples of assistance for La Velle included action by the Collectors Club of Boston. This group voted to send $10 to La Velle, and members will bring in coins at the May meeting to be forwarded to him.

The Southern Coin Exchange, Covington, Ga., sent five rolls and two sets (55 to 60) of uncirculated five cent pieces with good luck wishes.

"Let us know through the columns of Coin World if and when you do open a coin business. I would like to order something from you as soon as you open your doors and help push you along the path to success," wrote Frank H. Williams, Southern Coin Exchange partner, to La Velle.

(Coin World is happy to conform with Reader William's suggestion of free advertising at a later date when La Velle's coin stocks merit it. His first quarter page advertisement in Coin World will be without charge.)

Arthur O. Lange, of Martinsville, N. J., a self-described new collector who only owns one coin, was so touched with La Velle's determination against the odds that he sent a five dollar check.

He wrote:

"If a person has these qualities he does require help to make life worthwhile once again in this troublesome world. I am quite sure there are many persons who were down at the bottom of their hopes. . . and needed moral support. Those who have been in this environment can understand the feeling. . . ."

"A couple of thousand years ago a certain Man said:

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me."

A California numismatist quoted this familiar Bible passage as he anonymously forwarded his gift of coins to La Velle.

"If ever there was a person who needed a little help, this chap does. . . . how about requesting that each and every subscriber to Coin World dip into his coins and send one—just one—coin of any denomination to Mr. La Velle today?"

"This would mean a revival of hope to him and enable him to realize his dream of opening a small coin shop," the Californian concluded.

A Hollywood, Calif., collector who wished anonymity nominated Coin World for an Academy Award.

"It always was a pleasure to do business with the Coin World, and now I think you people are the tops! Why? The write-up you gave Victor La Velle."

"Even me, a small fry, called his home and had his sister come over and pick up 700 common date Lincolns, and I am an old hard-hearted guy."

"To show my appreciation I am going out next week and get a couple of subscriptions. . . ."

Arthur G. Dinkel, Saugerties, N. Y., observed that with very little strain and practically no damage to the collections of Coin World readers . . . one coin from the average collection would be the means of giving back La Velle's hope. Dinkel offered an 1883 racketeer nickel in fine condition.

"I sat down tonight and looked about me and saw the many blessings God has bestowed upon me and my family. Though I have about everything else to be grateful for. . . ." wrote a Tennessee collector.

"I only started coin collecting this past January, but it has meant much to me. My collection doesn't offer much but I did have a roll of BU 1955-S Lincolns that I sent to Mr. La Velle along with a check for the purchase of a 1961 proof set."

"I hope other collectors will take just a few minutes to count their blessings. Just a little token from them will help a man to carry his head high and be proud to be a member and a dealer in such a group of fine Americans. "My thanks to Coin World in helping me to find my best coined phrase, "It's better to give than to receive. . . ."

Charlie Cooper, Philadelphia, has a one-man, hour-long campaign suggestion to aid La Velle. He wrote:

"Coin collectors and dealers! The minute you get your wonderful Coin World, mark this memo above the red coloring of the paper—7 p.m. to 8 p.m. tonight! "I promise you it will result in the greatest bargain offered you this year. . . . or your money cheerfully refunded. If your plans for that hour was television, some phone calls or taking a nap. . . skip them or you'll be cheated."

"You read the urgent message that was told to the Coin World and then related back to you about the tragedy that has befallen this nice guy, Victor La Velle. He was even robbed of a dream and plan to busy himself by selling some coins to maintain himself and help to lighten the heavy load of terrible memories.

"When I read what some warm coin people and this fine paper was doing, I knew at once what I was going to do, but being only human, I thought that I just might forget, so I wrote down "7 p.m. to 8 p.m." on the Coin World. About that hour I looked around for some rolls, some Indian heads, and some coins that made up a small package . . . not much, just a little mixture . . . honest, it didn't hurt a bit and it's going off to Victor with a note inside letting him know the contents and a couple words of encouragement to this courageous fellow."

"Wouldn't it be something real heart-warming if, at this same hour, some thousands of you would be busy getting together packages? . . . Not much. . . just some of this and some of that, and sending them off to Victor with your wishes, too. Just picture the look on Victor's face and the warmth he would know when the mail man dumps those bundles at his door. What a bargain you'd be getting in all this. Can you think of a better deal you could make this year?"

"So. . . what will you be doing tonight between the hours of 7 p.m. and 8 p.m.? . . . Don't tell me for I'm sure all of us got the message. . . ."

Counterfeits For Sale!

I received a price list in the mail the other day that shocked me. A Canadian firm was offering for sale 62 lots of counterfeit and altered coins.

Listen to some of these descriptions: "Lead silver coated, nicest Victorian specimen ever seen;" "1947 ML curved right, very fine altered maple leaf, a copy of a rarity, nice specimen;" "counterstamped twice with curved counter on reverse, choice;" "U.S. 25c Barber 1901, reverse counterstruck counterfeit with a circular die, a very nice specimen."

Dick Johnson

These spurious coins, from Canada, United States and a few foreign countries, were offered for sale by the Toronto Coin Centre, Toronto, Canada. I question their profit motive when they resort to selling this kind of trash.

A counterfeit coin is made to deceive the public. When it is offered to a collector, its purpose is to deceive the coin enthusiast. The fact that it has "counterfeit" stamped all over it does not change this.

Counterfeit coins are not collectors' items. They do not belong in the cabinet of any numismatist. It is not necessary to have them as comparison pieces. They do not belong in the coin field whatsoever!

A coin dealer, by offering counterfeit coins for sale, gives them a certain collectibility. Unthinking people might say, "if they are offered for sale in this price list, it must be alright to collect them."

Nothing could be further from the truth! These coins are illegitimate from their birth, they are parasites on society, and a plague upon collectors.

They should be turned over to the authorities to be destroyed — not sold to collectors for their collections.

(Collectors should also question any price list that comes to them unsolicited. Many legitimate numismatic firms mail their literature to new collectors, but this is also how most unscrupulous dealers work.)

New Library Book Plan

While doing some research for a speech for the Kokomo Coin Club in Kokomo, Indiana, I learned that they have a very nice arrangement with their local public library.

The coin club offers to pay one-half the cost of any numismatic book the library wishes to buy. Their half is a donation from the coin club to the library.

This is an excellent idea! Many clubs will donate books on coins, but sometimes this does not fit into the librarian's scheme. They may be overstocked on one book, and have a crying need for another.

Why not talk with your local librarian and offer an annual amount from your club to buy the coin books they need? National Library Week is just over, and I'm sure they would welcome this offer. And too, they might ask you to help select the coin books.

Last Call For Pictures

As National Coin Week has a few more days to run, don't forget to have pictures taken of your coin exhibits. You will want these for publicity, and for your final report in the A.N.A. competition.

You earn additional points by having them published in coin publications also. So, have plenty of pictures taken, and send your best ones to us for inclusion in Coin World.

Send glossy prints, any size, with as much description of the exhibit as possible to: Coin World, Box 150, Sidney, Ohio.

Letters To The Editor

Congratulations on your first year. It has been a pleasure to read your nice paper. In my last classified ad I received 35 answers.

R. H. Jackson
Plain City, Ohio

You will soon be celebrating one year of publishing Coin World and I one year in the world of collecting. It has been one of the most satisfying years of my life and I hope that it proved to be all that you wished of it. I don't imagine that it was a bed of roses because of the magnitude of the task that you faced....you and your staff have done a remarkable job.

I admire the fact that you print not only the letters of praise that you receive but also those of the sour note.....

After my first ad with your paper my mailman asked if I would contribute toward his hernia operation. He claims this developed from the vast amount of mail I received for five weeks....Have you considered a crusade for uniform grading nationwide? It's sorely needed.....

Robert Albright
Detroit, Mich.

Happy first birthday for such a fine numismatic paper. It is just what was needed by the dealer (new and old) and collector. The coin trend pages are very helpful. Hope your paper lasts forever and becomes one of the most read and subscribed numismatic newspapers in the world. Compliments on your fine Civil War issue.....

Harry Leonhardt Jr.
Clayton, Mo.

You have done a magnificent job in editing the Coin World paper. I had visions but guess I am too old to start such a venture. Congratulations on your first year's birthday and may there be many, many more.....

Leo M. Thomas
Ashland, Ohio

I have been advertising in another numismatic newspaper but I am giving up on them and coming over to you. You have taken all of the readers and now you are taking all of the advertisers. You know the old saying? "If you can't lick 'em, join 'em!"

Lyons S. Lemon
Bryan, Texas.

I have always felt when reading articles to the editor that most people who write these articles are cranks. However, after many disappointing incidents myself I decided to write in and join the ranks of cranks.

First, may I say I enjoy the Coin World very much and your many interesting articles, but my complaint is not with you, it's with the advertiser who in many ways is his own worse enemy.

I have written 30 letters to various advertisers in your paper for coins advertised for sale and also to proof and roll dealers advertising to buy or sell. We found most didn't buy or sell by the advertised prices. This is a round-about means of a price control; a new way of buying cheaper.

I wrote trying to purchase coins at low prices and in most cases was advised these were the coins they needed themselves or had a big rush for or some other excuse and yet they advertised the same items in the next issue.

The proof and roll dealer offering proofs or rolls for sale also were out of the ones at low prices and when offering them coins or proofs at their advertised prices they stated they were loaded because they had had tremendous success with the ad and would advise when they could use some more.

In the meantime they offer you a ridiculous figure for your coins as they claim they are going to sell them much lower in their next ad.

Most of all, why does an honest dealer have to put "Write before sending"? If he honestly means to buy at his advertised price you would think he would welcome them and yet they run the same ad week in and week out. Result: Confused collectors and the creation of buyer resistance.

.....The fantastic success you have created for Coin World and yourself is no accident. You would be a success in anything you try with the sincere approach, hard work and good judgment you have displayed. I wish to congratulate you and also wish you all success for your first birthday celebration.

Allan Klenman
Victoria, Canada

My faith in Coin World has been substantiated. I subscribed "sight unseen" from the news item in Linn's Stamp Weekly, feeling that with the Sidney press and Carl Rueth to assist you, you had little chance to fail. I knew nothing of Dick Johnson at the time, but now realize that he has much on the ball himself to bring Coin World along so fast and as well as he has.

Admire his editorial policies. May Coin World enjoy the same publication life Linn's has (I've been with them since they were six months old) had, and will continue to have. Now that diversified columns have been added to the news items, Coin World has arrived.....Congratulations in advance on your first birthday.

Walter L. Tasker
Drexel Hill, Pa.

Some time ago I was glancing over some ads in Coin World on commemorative halves. I could find almost every state except Ohio, my own state. I believe that a commemorative medal of the state of Ohio would sell if enough collectors would write in. This might go over in a big way.

The next thing is to find a title for the medal, something like calling it the Buckeye State medal of Ohio, or let's just say the title most in demand would be appropriate. Let's go to collectors and dealers—it can be done.

Harvey C. Magley
Columbus, Ohio

Hundreds of letters received us through advertising in Coin World even it was just a classified one, your coin paper must be read through. Seemingly to Iceland takes about 30 days so please send your orders via airmail as special service to all our clients we send all our coins registered air mail only.

We will advertise very soon again but then the Iceland 1930 set and the first Iceland gold coin, 1961. Good luck for the next future with Coin World and greetings from Iceland.

Vilhjalmur Vilhjalmsson
Reykjavik, Iceland

Your publication is the finest by far! I have received other publications but they seem to be for the professional coin dealers or people who do nothing but buy and sell.

Advertising, of course, makes a paper financially successful, but your reading content is fantastic. I am an avid reader and a very small scale collector but on Mondays when I receive your paper the local newspaper stays unopened. My wife calls me a "Numismatic."

Your paper is interesting and informative to probably all collectors. Keep up the wonderful reading - advertising relationships and you can't help but become if you aren't already the most successful in the field.

Edmund J. Philipp
Milwaukee, Wis.

Enclosed find $5.....allow me to take this opportunity to congratulate you on a first class paper. You certainly deserve much credit for the bang-up job you have been doing. Keep up the good work. There is one thing that puzzles me though. I can't understand why more old coins are not advertised.

There are plenty of the modern variety but very little of the large cents, two cent pieces, three cents, old nickels, dimes, etc.

I have been collecting off and on for 25 years and the older type of coins has much more appeal to me than the more common modern type. Why not ask your advertisers this question?

Wellington V. Smith

Indian Capitol Club Host For Spring Event

Muskogee's Indian Capitol Coin Club recently completed plans to host the Greater Ozark Numismatic Association's Spring Convention to be held May 12, 13 and 14, in Muskogee, Okla.

The Severs Hotel will serve as headquarters for the convention, the first to be held in Muskogee.

In connection with the convention, a coin show will be held which will be open to the public. Officers of the Indian Capitol Coin Club hope the show will foster interest in coin collecting among visitors.

The Severs Hotel, located in downtown Muskogee, will serve as the center of all activities, although the First National Bank will display during the meet frames of U.S. Currency. These exhibits are furnished through the Kansas City Federal Reserve Bank.

The Greater Ozark Numismatic Association is an organization of Coin Clubs in Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma and seeks to coordinate activities of various clubs in these areas.

Marshall Chilcoat, publicity chairman for the event, said some 40 dealers from throughout the United States were expected to exhibit, but that space was limited.

Chilcoat said collectors who would like to reserve space may do so by contacting Emery L. Hensley, Secretary, 4804 Oklahoma Ave. in Muskogee. Prizes will be given to the best individual exhibitors.

Registration for the event will be held on the mezzanine floor of the Sever. Hotel. Severs Ballroom will be converted into a bourse room. The exhibit will be displayed in the east room, also located on the mezzanine floor. Saturday evening banquet will be held in the Pioneer Room at Severs at 6 p.m.

Registration fees will be only

50 cents with a banquet ticket selling separately for $2.25. Dealers' reservation for the bourse tables will be $12.75 which will include the registration fee and a banquet ticket for one. All room reservations must be made directly with Severs Hotel. Rooms are reasonably priced and readily available.

The officers for the Greater Ozark Group include J. J. Mingo, Muskogee, president, Jimmy Vaughan, Ft. Smith, vice president, and Emery Hensley, secretary, Muskogee.

Officers of the host club, the Indian Capitol Coin Club, are: C. R. Ross, Okmulgee president; Dr. J. T. Woodburn, vice president, Muskogee, and Perry Owen, Muskogee, secretary-treasurer.

Convention committee chairmen will be as follows: Registration, Mrs. Lillian Barton; bourse, Emery Hensley, 4804 Oklahoma ave., Muskogee, Okla.; exhibits, C. R. Ross; publicity, M. E. Chilcoat, and banquet, Dr. J. T. Woodburn.

Since a recent coin show held in Alva, Okla., drew some 5,000 coin collectors, dealers and vis-

Massachusetts Club Will Celebrate First Birthday

The Greater Fall River, Mass., Coin Club is scheduled to celebrate its first birthday anniversary on Tuesday, May 2, at its meeting at the Y.M.C.A., 199 North Main Street, in Fall River. A birthday cake will comprise part of the refreshments to be served. Feature of the program will be a talk by Clement Brando, who will illustrate the six stages in the manufacture of the Kennedy inaugural medal. A special committee for the birthday program comprises Paul Dubiel, Norman Morin and Richard Hamel.

At the last meeting, the club held its annual election of officers, with Americo (Mac) Almeida being re-elected president. Other officers include:

Brando, vice president and treasurer; Mrs. Alice Costa, secretary; John Assad, publicity chairman; and Leo Gagnon, sergeant at arms.

At the same session, the club voted to meet twice monthly, on the first Tuesday and third Thursday of each month, replacing a single monthly meeting. Fifteen new members were accepted, for a total of 28 at the last two sessions.

In his report on the meetings, president "Mac" Almeida expressed his appreciation to the club for his re-election, and hoped to produce more and better ideas for the club in 1961.

FOLKS...

A few really nice items came my way—things you don't see every day—while I was at the Texas Numismatic Association convention in Houston. Three pieces in particular, I want to put up for a Mail Bid Sale. In this way, nobody will get his check returned. The bid period closes May 1st which gives you a full week to get up your nerve!

MAIL BID SALE

Closing Date: May 1, 1961

Lot No. 1 — 1918/17-S Quarter

VF-XF. This coin is very unusual in that it was struck with a completely full head, most of which it retains. The date (or overdate) is struck sharply and deep. About 1/3 mint luster remains. I know of two pieces which sold on the floor in Miami this January: one AU at $825.00, another EF at $625.00. All I ask is that you bid over my cost of $390.00.

Lot No. 2 — 1869/68 Indian Cent

XF-AU. All four diamonds show, but all color is gone. This coin is much rarer than even an uncirculated 1877; especially Fine or better. I have never seen a really nice one offered before. One did just sell in FINE ONLY for $90.00. Now, don't beat around the bush with this—it wouldn't surprise me if every single bid is over $100.00.

Lot No. 3 — 1802/1 $5. Gold

For once, an overdate is a common variety. This is a beautiful AU type coin, with much mint lustre. Two LIGHT rim bumps in no way detract from the choice appearance of this coin. Early gold is a top investment, as there just isn't enough to go around! In today's market, $200.00 sounds like a fair WHOLESALE price.

New York Conclave Same Date As Host Club's 25th Anniversary

The 22nd annual convention of the Empire State (N.Y.) Numismatic Association, set for May 19-21, at the Manger Dewitt Clinton Hotel, in Albany, coincides with the 25th anniversary of the host club, the Albany Numismatic Society, which has spent almost two years in preparation for the event.

In recognition of its anniversary, the Albany society is offering two special awards for exhibits.

The first, its "Silver Jubilee" award is for the best display of "any 25 die struck silver coins, medals, tokens, badges, plaques, etc., dated 1936". There must be no duplicated pieces, with all 25 to be different items. Mint marks will not be considered "different" unless the type also changes.

The second special is for the "best display of Civil War centennial items, which must total 25 exactly, and be of a numismatic nature, dated or issued in 1861. No duplications are allowed here, but they may include both paper and metal or any other combination. Numismatic, 1861, and 25 are the major requirements.

For regular displays, the usual awards will be given by the ESNA. Information regarding remaining exhibit space may be obtained from the general chairman, James Walser, P. O. Box 1955, Albany 1.

At last report, some bourse space was still available. Interested dealers should contact the general chairman as soon as possible, he has warned.

New Denver Club Starts

Thursday, April 27, is scheduled for the second meeting of the newly formed Federal Coin Club of Denver, Colo., to be held in the North Denver Branch of the First Federal Saving and Loan, starting at 7:30 p.m.

At the first session, Gilbert Williams was elected president, with Clyde Everhart chosen vice president. Other officers include:

Dale Thomas, secretary-treasurer; and Ester Defabaugh, Joseph Kuhn and B. G. Horton, directors.

All Federal employees and their friends of either sex are invited to join, according to an announcement from secretary Thomas.

Plainfield Club Headed By Kaplan

Harold Kaplan of South Plainfield, N. J., has been chosen first president of the newly organized Plainfield Coin Club, according to an announcement from secretary Robert J. McClintock, of North Plainfield.

Other officers include Henry Santacross, Plainfield, vice president, and Leonard Kanarick, South Plainfield, treasurer.

TELL ADVERTISERS: YOU SAW IT IN "COIN WORLD!"

Club Changes Meeting Dates

After meeting on the third Monday of the month for nearly eight years, the Delaware Valley Coin Club of Woodbury, N. J., has changed to the first Tuesday, and will hold its next meeting on Tuesday, May 2, at the Woodbury Presbyterian Church.

The change was made because the church needed Monday nights for expansion of its own activities, and the coin club membership preferred to change their meeting date than to change the location, which had many facilities not readily available elsewhere.

Attendance averages 70 to 80 at each session, which includes an auction and several bourse tables.

Future Of Hobby In Today's Kids

By Jim Kelly

333 West First St. Dayton 2, Ohio

We recently wrote of our amazement at the tremendous growth in numismatics. Equally as amazing is the amount of interest shown by the youngsters—not only the teenagers but many even younger. We have known of cases where Dad was a collector and the youngster picked it up in order to please him, or in some instances were actually interested, but our observation is that today there is a completely different situation.

Jim Kelly

A great many of the Dads—and even Mothers—have become actively interested in numismatics because of the enthusiasm of the youngsters over this hobby.

This, no doubt, is the finest thing that could happen for numismatics but it does impose a responsibility on us oldsters, particularly the dealers, in seeing that these young collectors get the proper information and are not taken advantage of because of their inexperience and enthusiasm.

It is well to bear in mind that these beginners who now have only a dollar or two a week to spend on coins, can very likely be the big collectors of the next decade. So it's not only a moral obligation to treat them fairly but a sound business practice for the future.

Many of the coin clubs have special meetings for these juniors, several of which I have attended.

Frankly, I have been quite amazed at the knowledge some of these ten to twelve year old youngsters have about coins and coin collecting.

From what I have seen, the future of numismatics is in good hands and unless some of us old-timers keep on the ball and deal with the situation properly, it is liable to be taken out of our hands before we realize it!

Many times these youngsters are noisy and even a nuisance when they come in the office; however, all but a few of us were youngsters once upon a time and I doubt if a little patience and understanding would hurt any of us.

Charter President Creek Leader; Traces Colorful Indian Heritage

If the Indian capitol of the world, Muskogee, Okla., is the site of the Greater Ozarks Numismatic Association convention and show May 12-14, it follows that the host club is the Indian Capitol Coin Club.

It also naturally follows that the host of the host club, Joseph Judson Mingo, is a three-quarters Creek Indian!

The Genial charter president and one of the founders of the Indian Capitol Coin Club today traced his historic background for Coin World, and wove a colorful, proud story of his life and his family... one that rivals any bright Indian-pattern....

President Mingo's forefathers lived in the eastern part of the United States, Alabama, Tennessee and Florida, but in 1812-14, when Andrew Jackson was president, they were forced to move to what is now Oklahoma.

Their capitol was known as Muskogee, Indian territory, and under Creek leadership it was moved to Okmulgee. Here a tribal house was erected and it still stands today, used as a council house and a museum.

It was still Indian territory when Joseph Judson Mingo was born in Wagoner county January 5, 1902, the son of Robert J. Mingo, a well-educated man who had attended Henry Kendall College of Muskogee and Baylor College in Texas, and Irene Mingo, of French and Indian descent.

"My mother was known as a kind and gentle woman I am told," Mingo relates. "She died when I was two years old."

His father remarried when he was 12 years old, and later his stepmother died on Armistice day, 1918.

"I can remember making a trip to the town of Haskell with a team and wagon to secure a coffin for her burial with the rain pouring down all that day," the coin club president said.

His father died in a flu epidemic shortly thereafter, leaving a half-sister, who is now Mrs. Beulah Zellmer, of Tulsa, Okla., and Mingo.

"During the early years I spent my time hunting and trapping with my faithful dogs. The skins were traded for food or sold for small pocket change as my family never had a great deal of this world's goods," Mingo continues.

The first schooling he received was when he was 14 years of age. He was sent to Euchee Boarding School at Sapulpa, Okla. He transferred to Haskell Indian Institute at Lawrence, Kansas, two years later where he finished grade school and one year of high school.

He studied at Bacone College, only Indian college in America, at Muskogee. Here he finished high school and junior college and became a Baptist. He not only helped carry on Christian work at the school, he was president of the senior class and played football the entire time.

This brought him an athletic scholarship to William Jewell College at Liberty, Mo., in 1929.

"I had one suit, one pair of shoes and $20 when I began my college attendance," recalled Mingo.

He stayed in college until 1931, majoring in Bible and political science. During the depression years he returned to Oklahoma and became affiliated with a transportation company, Southern Kansas Stage Lines which was a predecessor of the Continental Trailways Inc. with which he is still employed.

He began working in the express department on a percentage basis and by solicitation of business. His income on the first day was 35 cents. During the past 30 years he has worked as city solicitor, ticket agent and station manager.

In 1935 he married Thelma Harris.

His interests have been with the Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce, various drives such as the Community Chest, etc., his church and the Masonic Lodge. He began collecting classic, semi-classic and operatic records, and then cut glass.

In 1948 he became affiliated with a stamp club. In 1953 he became interested in coins through a good friend, W. T. Hoyle, of Alma, Ark., who is a dealer.

Mingo was one of a group of seven who organized the first coin club in Muskogee, Okla., the Indian Capitol Coin Club, December, 1958. He served as president for two years. By December, 1960, membership in the club had grown to a total of 84.

In 1948 Mingo served as assistant principal to the chief of the Creek nation, Roley Kanard. In 1953 he was assistant to John F. Davis, who served as principal chief of the Creek nation. He also served as secretary and member of the Tribal Council for four years and as a representative of the Creek Tribe on the Inter-Tribal Council of the Five Civilized Tribes. In 1953 he was representative for the Creeks to the National Congress of American Indians at St. Paul, Minn.

617 COLLEGE STREET
FRESNO 4, CALIFORNIA

The Southwestern Ohio Coin and Gun Club of Mt. Healthy has scheduled its second day-long show and auction for Sunday, April 30, to be held at the Lakewood National Guard Armory at Mt. Healthy, 9355 Pippin Road, opening at 9 a.m. The auction is set to begin at 2 p.m.

After two months of existence, membership in the club stands at 182, according to a report from George A. Karwisch, club official. Monthly auctions are held, with 500 people in attendance at the last one, and 35 display tables used.

Chairman Replacement For Conclave

If the third annual convention of the Pennsylvania Numismatic Associates, scheduled for Saturday, April 29, at the Hotel Reddington, Wilkes Barre, Pa., is a success, it will be because a "pinch hitter" came through in the "pinch".

Usually the secretary of the organization is chairman of the convention, and it was so planned for 1961 after the 1960 meeting at Stroudsburg.

Unfortunately, the secretary, John C. Welker of Wilkes Barre, died suddenly in September, and George P. Williams, of Kingston, Pa., and secretary of the Wilkes Barre Coin Club, was called on to take over as chairman of the convention committee.

Planned for the convention are exhibits, auction, bourse tables and a banquet.

Participating clubs include the Susquehanna Coin Club of New Milford, Pa.; Simpson Numismatic Association of Carbondale, Pa.; Scranton, Pa., Numismatic Association; Monroe County Coin Club of Stroudsburg, Pa.; Wilkes Barre Coin Club and the Triple Cities Coin Club of Johnson City, N. Y., representing Binghamton and Endicott as well as its meeting city.

All Aboard For Coin Boats!

Washington Numismatist Plots Nautical Adventure

By Mrs. Loraine Burdick
Puyallup, Washington

A coin collection can reflect the specific interests of the numismatist. If you dream of boats or thrill to the joyous reality, let your coins proclaim that news.

No one wants to hop aboard a galley of ancient Lebanon unless he could have the standing position in the prow. (See photo of 5 piastres, 1925). The half-noble of Edward III, coined 1363-1369, shows both fine engraving and terrible seamanship. A boat of that shape would better serve the owl and the pussycat and the noble knight must surely be on his knees.

Lebanon has another galley coin while Cologne's taler of 1516, the one that shows the three wise men, has a slightly larger "round boat."

Native boats appear on the 1 shilling of Fiji from 1934-36 and the 1934 1 kroon of Estonia. The latter is a fascinating ship that served the Vikings effectively both in their native lands and emigrating to conquer vast frontiers. Perhaps both collection and dreams can center on this Viking symbol of adventure that costs about two dollars.

Another venturesome ship is the Portuguese caravel on the 1954 ten escudos. For results, however, perhaps Americans feel closer to the Kalmare Nyckel of Sweden. See the 2 kronor commemorative of 1938. She was the flagship for the colonists from Sweden who came to present-day Delaware in 1638. Excellent proportions make this a beautiful numismatic ship.

No ship appears on the 1000 reis of 1898 to commemorate the 400th anniversary of Vasco da Gama's discovery of the route to the Indies. But it is a coin for ship-lovers, nevertheless, and its reverse carries the cross with an inscription from the days of the Roman Emperor Constantine the Great, "In this sign conquer."

My favorite ship sails in on the British halfpenny of 1953. For those interested in rigging, this is an excellent coin for identifying the various sails, decks, spars and masts.

Among the boats to be added to the fleet are those on the halfpenny from South Africa from 1931-36, and the 3 marks commemorative of the German Republic for the 1927 centenary of Bremerhaven.

Simplicity emphasizes the good design of the fishing schooner from St. Pierre and Miquelon on the aluminum 1 franc of 1948.

Only a coin fleet of ships could risk the inclusion of pirate vessels. But every navy welcomes protection against the Jolly Roger. In 1793, Bermuda sailed a three masted fighting ship onto her copper penny and how well she could have used each copper ship on her seas.

A two kronor commemorative of 1938.

The Bahamas didn't bother with coin ships until her fleet had conquered the pirates' kingdom at Nassau which in the 18th century included the ferocious William Teach, better known as Blackbeard because he raised a truly awesome one in his efforts to look as fierce as he acted.

So in 1806, the copper halfpenny announced, "By expulsion of pirates, commerce is restored." For further details you can investigate Teach's capture by the British Maynard who used a man-o'-war such as the 'coin honors.

Another great boost to commerce came with the Suez and Panama Canals. Suez construction was paid for with a token of 1865 that pictured an ancient boat.

But now it is time for the fleet to drop anchor. And here on a 1 prutah from Israel is a very fine anchor. Thus our fleet is riding safely. But don't rest. Find more coin boats to add to your numismatic navy.

A fine anchor on Israel's one prutah . . .

Aluminum one franc of 1948.

Five piastres, 1925, calls for a dash to the prow!

A coin of 14th century with fine engraving, terrible seamanship. . .

A coin for ship-lovers, the 1000 reis of 1898.

A British half penny of 1953.

Officers of the Climax Coin Club met April 13 to open up five more bourse tables at their first coin convention, April 29 and 30 in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Dealer demand was heavier than originally expected, said the officials, causing them to add the extra tables for dealers.

Cost for the two day convention is $10 bourse rental. Dealers may write for a table reservation to Mrs. Norm Schallberg, Bourse Chairman, 110 North Main, Climax, Michigan.

The convention will be held in the Recreation Park and County Building on Lake Street, in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

MAN IN SPACE MEDAL

Issued By

COIN-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB

Late in the evening on October 4, 1957 A.D., Sputnik I separated from its booster rockets and went into orbit around the earth — thus beginning the "Space Age."

Three years, six months and eight days later (in the fourth year of the Space Age) a man made the first orbital space flight, returning safely to earth after traveling 108 minutes through space and reaching a peak velocity of over 17,000 miles per hour — the fastest speed at which anyone has ever traveled.

The Coin-Of-The-Month Club is issuing a Medal to Commemorate this momentous step forward in man's conquest of space.

This "Man In Space" Commemorative will be ready for distribution within one week, and orders are now being taken for this limited issue. There will be only 5,000 Sterling Silver copies of this Commemorative Medal struck along with only 10,000 Nickel Silver and 250 Gold Medals.

The Sterling Silver and Gold Medals will be sold in numerical order according to the date the orders are received . . . after the limited issue is sold out, the dies will be destroyed and no more struck.

Be sure to place your order today to be assured of receiving your copy of the "Man In Space" Commemorative as soon as possible. Remember . . . after the original supply is sold out you will not be able to purchase this desirable Commemorative Medal.

This is the first in a series of "Space-Age Commemoratives" to be issued as an "extra" by the Coin-Of-The-Month Club. If you place your order now for this first in the series, you will also be the first to be notified of the other Medals in the "Space Age Commemorative" series and will be able to build a complete set of these medals in whatever metal you prefer. Future medals in this series will also be struck in limited quantities, assuring you that they will retain, and even increase in value, as the years go by.

If you have other Coin-Of-The-Month Club Commemoratives, you know the exacting care with which these medals will be engraved and struck. If you do not yet have Commemoratives issued by the Coin-Of-The-Month Club, you will be thrilled by the beauty of workmanship and the satin-smooth two-tone design, which only our master engraver can achieve . . . an effect far superior to the finish on other Medals. And, Sterling Silver especially, as well as Nickel Silver and Gold lend themselves most beautifully to the deft touch of our engraver's superior talents.

You will want this "Man In Space" Commemorative . . . and the entire "Space Age Commemorative" series for your personal collection, and you will want to give one or more to your young collector friends who will treasure them.

Again, we must mention that the supply is limited to only 5,000 Sterling Silver, 250 Gold, and 10,000 Nickel Silver medals making it important for you to order immediately. "MAN IN SPACE"

MEDAL

Issued by

COIN-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB

Late in the evening on October 4, 1957 A.D., Sputnik I separated from its booster rockets and went into orbit around the earth—thus beginning the "Space Age".

Three years, six months and eight days later (in the fourth year of the Space Age) a man made the first orbital space flight, returning safely to earth after traveling 108 minutes through space and reaching a peak velocity of over 17,000 miles per hour—the fastest speed at which anyone has ever traveled.

The Coin-of-the-Month Club is issuing a Medal to Commemorate this momentous step forward in man's conquest of space.

ISSUE IS BEING LIMITED TO 5,000 STERLING SILVER, 10,000 NICKEL SILVER, AND 250 GOLD.

An order placed early will assure you of receiving your copy of this very limited issue. Continuing the tradition of the Coin-of-the-Month Club issues, these medals have been struck in Sterling Silver, Nickel Silver, and Gold. Fine quality and beauty of workmanship will make this commemorative medal a valuable addition to your collection.

Specifications: Size 1-5/16" (33mm). Obverse - Space capsule sent into orbit with man inside. Reverse - Facts concerning first manned orbital flight.

Pres. Kennedy Coin World Reader

Our President, John F. Kennedy, is now a reader of COIN WORLD, his subscription starting with this week's issue. W. C. Hatcher, Kinston, North Carolina, in commenting on the subscription, stated "maybe he can do for coins what Franklin D. Roosevelt did for stamps and what Ike did for golf."

We at COIN WORLD welcome JFK to the ranks of thousands of readers who weekly find numismatics a most refreshing and worthwhile hobby.

Deliveries Slowed Up Last Two Weeks

During the past two weeks we have received several letters stating that the delivery of COIN WORLD has been one or two days later than usual.

We have checked with our local post office and the only answer they could give us was that there is now in progress a rerouting of mail in many localities due to the changes in train schedules and the setting up of dispatch centers. We hope that by now the problems have been solved.

Your paper has been leaving our plant at the same time each week and is mailed under second class regulations and gets special newspaper handling.

Help Needed From Reedley, Calif.

We have a problem. It is in the form of a check written on an account at the Crocker-Anglo National Bank, Reedley, California. The check was not signed but it was not discovered until we were making out our daily deposit slip.

In the processing of the day's business, the order was separated from the check and we are unable to return the check to the proper sender for his endorsement.

If you are the sender or know who the sender might be, let us know and we will return the check for the proper signature.

Numismatically yours,

Club Studies Under Police Tutelage

Lt. Clyde Bevis, of the Wichita, Kans., Police Investigation Division, is pointing out the differences between genuine and counterfeit bills to Glen Koester (left), president of the Wichita Coin Club, at a recent meeting of the club. (The top bill is real).

SS Agent Addresses Club

More than 100 members and guests attended a recent meeting of the Wichita Coin Club which featured a talk on counterfeit money by U. S. Secret Service agent Jack Neilsen of Wichita.

He showed motion pictures and two enlarged replicas of bills to demonstrate how money is counterfeited and how it may be detected.

Also taking part in the program were Don Stringfield of Washington, D. C., who will shortly relieve Neilsen in Wichita, and Lt. Clyde Bevis of the Wichita Police Department's Division of Investigation.

During the meeting, club president Glen Koester presented Harry Saums with an honorary life membership in the club for "the outstanding accomplishments which he has made for the benefit of the club".

It was announced that only seven more bourse tables are available for the club's Coin Show, scheduled for May 13 and 14 at St. Anthony's Community Center, for which Marvin Withers of Pratt, Kansas, is advisor.

Galveston Club Considers Junior Group

The Galveston County Coin Club of Texas City, Texas, was slated to hold its second April meeting on Tuesday evening, April 25, at the Carl Nessler Civic Center in Texas City, with plans for sponsoring a junior club expected to be on the program.

The proposed junior club is the result of increased interest in collecting on the part of Galveston County young people, with more applying for membership in the present group than there is room for.

At a recent meeting, the members heard Ben Powel, Galveston attorney, speak on "legal aspects of coin collecting". Among his suggestions were that members should keep complete records of the collections, also to keep them in a safe place, and to make provisions in their wills for disposal in the event of the owner's death.

Officers of the Galveston County club include Dr. W. T. Anderson, president; Carl Nessler, Jr., president-elect; Mrs. Fred Fischer, secretary; Tom Hutto, treasurer; Jim Sprague, sergeant-at-arms, and Earl Russell and Francis Ripley, directors.

Coin Is King Show Reigns At Binghamton, New York

One of the outstanding collections of fractional currency, encased postage and Montgomery notes in the country, was a feature of the Civil War Centennial exhibit to be presented at the "Coin is King" Show on Sunday, April 23, at the Arlington Hotel in Binghamton, N. Y., sponsored by the Triple Cities Coin Club.

The collection mentioned is the property of Dr. Kenneth J. Sartoris of Schenectady, N. Y., first president of the Empire State Numismatic Association, prominent numismatist and member of the Albany, N. Y., Numismatic Society.

In addition to the exhibits, another feature of the Show was a "Coin Clinic", a table set aside to which people may bring odd coins to be identified or appraised. In charge of this unusual aspect of the affair is a committee headed by Floyd Mottram of Binghamton, a past president of the Triple Cities club.

Some 17 bourse tables are expected to be occupied at the show. These will remain open during the auction, which will be held in a separate room. As an added attraction, souvenir wooden nickels will be used as tokens of admission, available at registration.

They may also be obtained by mail from Show co-chairman Fred G. Hunter whose new address is 67 Broome Street, Binghamton, N. Y.

Missourians Change Site

By popular demand, the Heart of America Numismatic Association of Kansas City, Mo., will hold its May 1 auction in the Paseo room of the American Legion building, starting at 8 p.m.

Formerly meeting in the Kansas City Elks club and holding its auctions at the Kansas City Museum, the club recently changed its meeting place to the American Legion Hall, Linwood and Paseo, and members found the facilities so much to their liking that the auction will be held there also.

The club plans to continue a yearly contribution to the Museum in appreciation for past courtesies, and because it has established a permanent coin display there.

Coins Fly, Dealer Rages, Police Pursue

A robbed coin dealer who was arrested for disorderly conduct, a river-swimming youth and another boy who tried to seek sanctuary in a church plus a hide-and-seek, rain-splattered chase by five policemen in downtown Rockford, Ill., figured in an April 12 coin theft saga.

Rockford police arrested Larry Gantz, 16, as a burglary suspect as he tried to enter St. Marys Catholic Church, pursued by five officers.

Rare coins from the Rockford Coin and Stamp Store, 323 Chestnut Street, were scattered along the chase route.

Police later arrested a 15-year-old boy who swam across a river to escape pursuing officials.

Harry S. Van Denberg, 76, owner of the coin and stamp shop, was arrested for disorderly conduct as police were gathering up the scattered coins from the wet streets.

He refused to allow the officers to take the recovered coins as evidence to be returned later. Sgt. Carl Johnson said he also made insulting remarks about the police force. Van Denberg's bond was set at $50.

Only casualty in the wild chase was a torn uniform when Officer Raymond Kisting fell during the pursuit of the youths.

Authorities at the Vicksburg, Miss., Old Court House Museum reported to police that a collection of foreign coins had been taken from a cabinet in the building.

A coin collection was stolen recently from the Clifford Gordon home, Independence, Kansas.

Two sets of foreign coins were stolen from the James E. Mitchell residence in Independence, Mo.

A $100 coin collection including gold pieces was taken from the Burna Park, Calif., residence of Alexander Vasta.

A silver Kennedy presidential medal, No. 7080, and a bronze Alaska medal were reported stolen from the Patt's Hobby Shop, 1917 W. Central, La Habra, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Smith, owners of the firm, said they suspected three teen-agers who may try to sell the pieces.

A $1,500 coin robbery has been reported by G. H. Watts, Dalton, Ga., who said his home was entered and burglarized on Sunday, April 16.

The major portion of the Watts collection was in the bank, however, the Georgia collector reported.

Include in the loss were 20 Whitman folders, 10 National Coin Albums, all denominations, cents to dollars, a collection of large cents from 1816 to 1957, complete sets of uncirculated Jefferson nickels, Franklin halves, Barber halves, Liberty standing halves, two type sets, 1790 to date, and a quantity of uncirculated rolls.

Giant Bill In Bank Display

A $10,000 bill from the Federal Reserve Bank at Kansas City will be among the attractions at the coin display arranged by the Midland Empire Numismatic Association, St. Joseph, Mo., at the American National Bank, 7th and Felix Street, from April 23 to April 29.

There will be coins of all denominations as well as gold and National Bank Notes. Missouri bank notes, a portion of a collection owned by Dr. Carter, Hamilton, Mo., will be displayed.

Bank hours Monday through Friday are 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Four New Albums Released

Four new volumes in the Library of Coins have been announced by the Coin and Currency Institute, Inc. in New York.

These include volume 36 for half cents, 1793-1857, three pages; volumes 37 and 38 for large cents, part 1, 1793-1820, and part 2, 1821-1857, four pages each, and volume 39, large cent size, five pages.)

The Library of Coins is a series of albums in which the coins are visible on both sides. The coins are protected by pairs of movable, transparent slides.

Albums have gold titles on their spines and can be displayed on shelves in the same manner as books. They have already been published for modern U.S. and Canadian coins with the four new additions the latest in the series.

Library of Coins albums are available at coin and stamp dealers, hobby and book shops and at coin counters of leading department stores.

The half cent volume will hold a complete set of half cents including all major varieties, but not the rare proofs of the 1830's and 1840's. Spaces are provided for 52 coins including the 1837 token. It costs $2.95.

All major, accepted varieties of large cents are included in the large cent albums—there are 64 openings in each one for a total of 128 coins. The date, variety and amount minted are printed under each opening. Each of the large cent volumes cost $3.95.

The general volume of large cent size is without any printing at the opening, and is designed for those who collect large cents in a particular manner.

It can be used for any coins of the large cent size, U. S. or foreign. There are many coins in gold, silver and minor metals which will find a comfortable home in this album. There are openings for 80 coins.

Address of the publishers, The Coin and Currency Institute, Inc., is 134 West 32nd Street, New York 1, New York.

Kelsey New Club President

Charles Kelsey, Berkeley township, New Jersey, is the new president of the Ocean County Coin Club, elected to that post at a meeting, held at the Citta's Old Time Tavern, Toms River.

Mrs. James Throp is vice president; Lewis Jennison, Toms River, secretary; J. Riley Hill, Toms River, treasurer, and James Tanner, Lakehurst, sergeant at arms.

Plans for a series of displays during National Coin Week are occupying the 50 members of the club.

Hill and Jennison reported to the club on their visit to the revamped numismatic section of the Smithsonian Institution recently. David Hayes and Philip Young won prizes at the meeting which also included an auction.

were used as money. Inasmuch as it was impractical to handle stamps, some merchants issued their own notes and made them payable in Postage Currency.

QUESTION: I have a note issued by the Bank of St. Louis and the date is illegible. When was this bank in operation?

ANSWER: The Bank of St. Louis, Missouri, was chartered in 1813 and went into liquidation in 1819. All notes of this bank are very scarce.

QUESTION: What is the origin of the dollar mark—"S"?

ANSWER: There has been so much controversy regarding this question that I hesitate to answer. However, I shall list a few of the stronger arguments concerning its origin. A number of people have attributed the "S" mark to a contraction of the letters U.S. The U being written first and the S written over the U. Some people say it is a contraction of the Spanish word "pesos", meaning dollars. Perhaps the most logical explanation is that it is a modification of the figure 8; the figure 8 being in reference to eight "reals", as the dollar was formerly called. The word dollar itself is regarded as a derivative of the German word "Thaler."

QUESTION: Was there a Bank of America?

ANSWER: Yes, as a matter of fact, there were several. There was one in Clarksville, Tenn., and one in New York City.

Fort Worth Man T.N.A. Top Winner

The Lone Star of Texas shone on R. E. Cox Jr., Fort Worth, as he was given the best-of-show trophy at the awards breakfast, April 9, in Houston at the second annual convention of the Texas Numismatic Association.

The trophy for best-of-show was a large silver figure holding a lone star and a Texas commemorative half dollar aloft. Cox won the award for his display of early U.S. coins, which also took first place in the U. S. coin category.

Other display winners were: Robert McNamara, Cleveland, first in ancients; Doris Martin, Houston, first in foreign coins; Bill Logan, Houston, first in U.S. currency; Dr. Thomas Watson, Houston, first in foreign currency; Wallace Davis, Houston, first in gold; Robert McNamara, first in miscellaneous; Tommy Watson, first in the junior division.

Bill Logan's display of currency in a Texas shaped plaque won the popularity choice. Each person entering the exhibit area was given a ballot to choose the exhibit he liked best. The ballots also served to indicate the number of people who saw the exhibits.

A. I. Martin, Houston, was elected president of the two-year-old state association, replacing Joe Davis, Corpus Christi, retiring president.

Other officers elected April 8 were: Dr. Herbert Wilson, Monahan, vice president; Mrs. J. C. Jenkins, Fort Worth, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Jenkins' home address becomes the new T.N.A. mailing address. It is: 800 West Waggoman Street, Fort Worth 10, Texas.

The ladies' luncheon was quoted as "truly a success". Held in the exotic Safari on Richmond Avenue in Houston, the waiters were dressed in turbans in India fashion. A style show was held after the luncheon and each guest was given a coin tray as a favor and selected a pair of earrings from a tree.

Attendance at the show was estimated at 6,000 while 5,000 registered. Forty-three dealers had bourse tables, many coming from as far away as New York and California.

One of the drawing cards was the 1913 Liberty nickel, lent to the convention by J. C. McDermott, Milwaukee, Wis.

A special display case was filled with all types of numismatic items. Viewers were supposed to guess both the face value and the numismatic value. Phillip Daly, Houston, guessed closest on numismatic value, $1,775, while he won in a three-way tie for actual value, $105.59.

Eugene Demko, Columbus, Nebraska dealer, held the auction, Friday, April 7. "All items sold well," said Demko, "as the entire coin market swings on an upward trend."

Outstanding in the 368 lot auction was a Hawaii set going for $561.61 to a floor bid; and a choice 1803 $10 gold, first known, brought $375.

Only incident to mar to the convention was a theft of an undetermined amount of clothing, cash and coins from the car of George Gill, Lawton, Okla., as he departed from the convention Saturday, April 8.

Next convention for the Texas Numismatic Association is scheduled for Odessa in October, 1961.

Pueblo Site Of April Convention

Coin Clubs of Southern Colorado were scheduled to hold their third annual "Southern Colorado Coin Convention" on Saturday and Sunday, April 22-23, at the Whitman Hotel in Pueblo.

On the program were exhibits, bourse, auction and banquet, with nine ribbons to be awarded for the best displays in as many classes.

Wheatland Club

Because of its large increase in membership, the Wheatland, Pa., Coin Club will hold its next meeting, scheduled for Wednesday, May 3, at the Knights of Pythias Hall, 71 Broadway, in Wheatland, starting at 7:30 p.m., according to a report from secretary Russell Mohnsey.

Until recently, the club had been meeting at the City building.

Club Named For Indian

The Uncas Numismatic Association of Norwich, Conn., is scheduled to hold its next meeting on Wednesday, May 3, at the Norton Library, 315 Broadway, Norwich, starting at 7:30 p.m. Exhibits and an auction will feature the meeting. Visitors are welcome.

Founded in 1950, the club takes its name from the fact that the town of Norwich was originally the property of the Mohegan tribe of Indians, and was brought from Uncas, Sachem of the tribe, in 1659 for 70 English pounds.

During the King Phillip War in 1675, he sided with the colonists against the Narragansett Indians and as a result no one was killed in Connecticut in that struggle, according to society historians.

Values Defined

Actual metallic value of a coin is described as its intrinsic value as opposed to its face or token value.

Cereal City Club Will Hold Open House April 28

On Friday, April 28, the Cereal City Coin Club of Battle Creek, Mich., has scheduled an Open House at its meeting place in the Community Service building, 182 West Van Buren, starting at 7:30 p.m., according to an announcement from club president M. Merle Smith.

During the following two days,

April 29 and 30, the Cereal City club plans to have an exhibit at the Kalamazoo, Mich., coin convention, set for the Kalamazoo Recreation Park and County building, sponsored by the Climax, Mich., Coin Club.

Those events are the finale for the Battle-Creek group's participation in National Coin Week, Smith said. Other plans for the week have included:

Saturday, April 22, display of lobby of Kellogg Auditorium announcing the National Coin Week; Sunday, April 23, display of coins in Kingman Museum for the week, with members present on Sunday; Monday through Friday, April 24-29, display in bank lobby with members present during bank's opening hours.

Monday, April 24, radio announcement of National Coin Week on both local stations; Wednesday, April 26, special membership drive night, auction and other events; Thursday, April 27, TV program over W. B. C. K.; Same day, 7 p.m., Coin talk by President Smith to Urbondale Kiwanis club.

Indianians Seek Members With Contest

The membership contest being conducted by the Seymour, Ind., Numismatic Society was scheduled to end with the meeting of Wednesday evening, April 26, in the Seymour public library.

Members were to receive points for bringing in new applications, one point for a junior from 12 to 21, and two points for a senior member. Any member who earned six points in that manner was to receive a 1961 proof set.

More valuable sets were to be awarded for varying point totals, with 16 points being worth a 1958 set. In that way, anyone had a chance to win a prize, rather than just one person who might have obtained the largest number of new members.

The Seymour club is presenting to the library some numismatic books, partly in token of thanks for the rent-free meeting space, and partly to encourage the library to add to its numismatic literature.

The Romance of MONEY

By Ted R. Hammer

"Collectors of all kinds invariably have high IQs," says Murray Teigh Bloom in his book, "Money of Their Own." Author Bloom collects counterfeiters, a long time avocation that resulted in his popular book. Counterfeiters somehow have escaped exhaustive study by psychiatrists and psychologists and Freudian and Jungian analysts, says Bloom. While most of the book is devoted to exploits of big timers, a special section covers some of the lesser lights in this department of crime.

More than half a century ago a Spanish ring turned out counterfeiters of the 10 and 20-franc gold coins of France. They had a "good ring" (not a good test) and they looked good. The phony were made of glass.

The Ramirez brothers of Mexico did well financially with a poor imitation of our $100 notes. The notes would not bear close scrutiny by anyone familiar with any notes but that did not matter.

The brothers Ramirez had a system all their own for getting rid of the notes. The bills were used by American bootleggers for payment to suppliers of booze. The suppliers did not have time to check notes on a moonless night aboard a pitching boat. And, after all, to whom could they complain? After awhile, the suppliers hired bank tellers and others familiar with money to look over the notes before the bootleggers departed with the liquor.

One Marcus Crahan, a Providence photo engraver, provided himself with an alibi for possession of the counterfeit notes he made. He passed the notes at race tracks across the country.

Arriving in a city to exchange some counterfeit notes for good ones, he would place a classified advertisement in a newspaper. The ad stated he had found some banknotes in the railroad station, and that the owner could claim them by proving they were his. If caught, Crahan could show the ad and say the phony notes were the ones he found. But Secret Service men can read, too, and the very precautionary measure used by Crahan finally caused his downfall.

A Roman Catholic travelled about the country, offering fifty $100 bills for novenas (which he certainly needed). He had no trouble getting change from the priests. The Bloom book is available from Ballantine Books, 101 Fifth Ave., New York, N.Y., 50 cents.

Observes Birthday

The Green River Coin Club of Kent, Wash., has scheduled its next meeting for Friday, May 5, to be held in the National Bank of Washington building at Kent.

At its April session, the club celebrated its first anniversary with a birthday party dinner meeting. No bourse was held but an auction followed the dinner.

Confederate Medalllic Art Limited

Only One Known Medal Authorized By Government

By Nathan N. Egli

There are only a few contemporary metallic mementoes of the Confederate cause. In the Coin Collector's Journal of March-April, 1940, nine pieces are listed and illustrated. It is worthwhile quoting therefrom in full as follows:

"4—Jefferson Davis 1861. So-called Confederate dime. Head of Davis l. C.R. below. R CSA FIRST PRESIDENT. Date 1861 in wreath.

"5—Brig. Gen. Beauregard, C.S. A. Head to l. C. R. below. R MANASSAS 21 JULY, 1861 with wreath. Silver.

"6—Dime token 1861. Tobacco and sugar cane. R Cotton plant. Silver.

"7—Half Dime token 1861. Flag—A UNITED SOUTH. R Cotton plant. Silver.

"8—Half Dime token. Scales. R 5c within circle of 9 stars. Silver or base silver.

"9—Nicholson's Half dime. Scales—GOOD AT NICHOLSON'S. R STATE OF MISSOURI. HALF DIME in wreath. Base silver.

"10—Dime token. MC and star in inner circle, border of 12 stars. R PR and star in inner circle, ornamental border. German silver.

"11—Token. No submission to the North 1860. Palmetto tree, cannon etc. R The Wealth of the South. Rice, Tobacco, Sugar, Cotton, Brass, often with light silvering. This token was restruck after the war with various reverses and other metals.

"12—Baltimore ship token. Brass.

"13—Baltimore ship token countermarked CS.

"Some of the preceding may be open to question. The MC-PR token is included because the stars are very like those on the 5 cent token with scales. The Baltimore token probably circulated during the period and the CS (Confederate States) countermark may be significant."

Readers will want to consult the first three stories in this series—they were published in March 23, March 30 and April 13 editions of Coin World.

The only known contemporary medal that may be regarded as officially authorized by the Confederate government is the "Stonewall" Jackson medal that is illustrated. This medal was designed and struck by the Paris mint in 1863 after General Jackson's death. The designer is the French Mint engraver Caque.

On the obverse is the naked bust of Jackson and the inscription tion around the edge: Lieut General T. J. Jackson, Stonewall, Born 1821-Died 1863. Below the bust: Caque F. On reverse, is a closed wreath is the list of battles in which Stonewall participated. On a ribbon that twines through the wreath is a list of other battles. Below is the inscription "Deo Vindici" (Eglt)

The Coin Collector's Journal, May, 1940, gives the story of this medal, as follows:

"The ultimate object for which these medals were made has never been known, as Col. C. A. L. Lamar, by whom they were ordered while in Paris on official business for the State of Georgia, had returned home and was killed in battle before the medals reached this country.

"They ran the blockade, arriving at Wilmington, N. C. after Savannah had fallen into the hands of the enemy.

"Being consigned to Mr. Antoine Poullain, of Augusta, Ga., they were stored in a cotton warehouse, and when the Yankees entered that city, many of the boxes were broken open and the medals carried off.

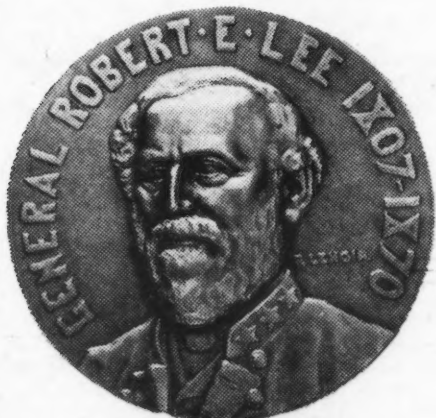

"A few years later Mr. Poullain sent the medals to Col. Lamar's widow, who had them stored in a warehouse near the Savannah river, where, for 30 years, they lay forgotten.

"They were finally discovered and presented by Mrs. C. A. L. Lamar to the Charter Chapter, Georgia Division, U.D.C. to be disposed of for the benefit of that chapter."

There are any number of commemorative pieces issued in the South in later years in connection with centennials, celebrations, erection of monuments or statues for Davis, Lee and Jackson. A few are herewith illustrated.

Lee, more than any other American who was on the side of the South, has been honored generally as a national hero. He has been enrolled in the Hall of Fame at Columbia Univer-

This medal honoring General Robert E. Lee was struck by the Paris Mint. To the right may be seen the designer's name, P. Lenoir.

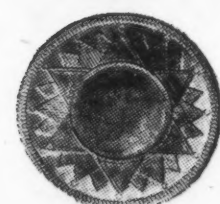

An "official" medal authorized by the Confederate government was designed and struck by the Paris Mint in 1863 as a posthumous honor.

Jefferson Davis appeared on the Macon, Ga., State Fair medal of October 25, 1887.

A Robert E. Lee medal struck in 1890 upon the occasion of an unveiling of a statue.

Staunch, stern leadership is represented on this series of Civil War medallic art. From top are medals executed in honor of Gen. G. K. Warren, Gen. Philip Kearney, Gen. Joseph Hooker, Gen. U. S. Grant, Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock, Gen. W. T. Sherman, Gen. Franz Sigel, Gen. H. G. Berry and Gen. Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson.

New Houston Shop Opening

Northwest Groups To Hold Club Luncheon

Local and regional problems will be discussed at a luncheon for presidents of the clubs belonging to the Pacific Northwest Numismatic Association on Saturday noon at the convention, May 26-28 in Spokane, Wash., according to Mrs. Robert V. Alexander, chairman of the affair.

The convention, the 18th annual get-together of area clubs, is to be held at the Daveport Hotel in Spokane.

"Carefully laid plans are being made to insure each person attending, whether a collector, a wife or a child, a pleasant stay in the lilac city," Mrs. Alexander said as she predicted the largest gathering of numismatists in the northwest since the American Numismatic Association meeting.

Registration is to begin the morning of May 26. Mrs. Alexander said. Mrs. Frances Mills, ladies' activities committee chairman, has activities lined up for the wives and lady numismatists including a free bus tour of the city, style show, luncheon and other interesting side trips and shows.

There promises to be a record number of bourse tables, Mrs. Alexander said; a few spaces are still available and may be obtained by writing to Robert Alexander, bourse chairman, Box 271, Parkwater Station, Spokane, Wash.

R. B. McTighe has completed the auction listing, and the material will be listed in April 27th edition of Coin World. The auction sessions will be held Friday and Saturday afternoon and will be a combined mail and floor bid affair.

At the Saturday "no host" luncheon, the officers of the P.N.N.A. will join presidents of the member clubs to promote a closer relationship between the local and regional organizations. Jack Koch, P.N.N.A. vice president, will preside at this session.

Saturday evening there will be a "no host" social hour preceding the banquet. Bourse tables will be closed for the banquet, and will open later in the evening.

After the banquet there will be P.N.N.A. business session with election of officers to be the highlight.

FOLKS...

I just got in from the Texas Numismatic Association Convention in Houston. We drove all night to get here, but one look at all that mail and I'm ready to hit the road again. Anyway, by the time this paper is out, I should have sent some kind of reply to everyone.

My neighbor, John Diebolt, is supposed to have sent a post card to everyone who wrote in my absence. With no current ad going, I didn't expect 250 more orders!

At any rate, Houston was a ball! Business boomed, and a lot of hot items came to light. 1950-D nickels broke through $200.00 a roll on the way up, while the scarce early date type coins went for up to triple Book. Suddenly everyone has 1961 proofs, while the 1958 proof sets have disappeared again. There was a lot of interest in 1955-S cents at $9.50 a roll, as well as 1960-D sm. date cents at $4.75 to $5.25 per roll wholesale. (I have a few of these.)

A FOOTNOTE:

I've advertised in the past to deliver BU rolls of cents, or BU coin sets from 1934-1960, or what have you. Now, I define a BU copper coin as one which retains its original copper color, or some shade thereof, and has not been tarnished brown by fingering. A gem coin is one which is not only bright, but completely free of all spots and bag marks. Only about 1/2 of 1% of all unc. cents fall in this category. When you buy a BU roll, it is assumed that what you will get is 50 bright, unspotted coins, selected at random from a sack. However, if the roll is 30 years old, most of the coins may have started to tone. Remember, most un-circ. large cents are black! Anyway, I ship the best I can. Having ordered from 3 other roll dealers this month, I know full well that my efforts are better than theirs. I'm just being bitter right now because of one man who received a sealed roll from me, probably unopened for 10 years. The coins were all BU, untuned and unspotted, except for 2 pieces. He was so sure that he had been took, that rather than return the roll that he had received sealed, he went to the post office authorities to bring charges of mail fraud. It was a $5.75 roll, and is so nice that its going into my next roll set.

ONE LAST ITEM

If you don't like my merchandise, send it back! You don't have to ask permission, and you don't have to keep it. I seldom have to make a refund, but when I do, it's automatic. Remember, my satisfied customers feed me!

A potential attendance of 1,500 with all 32 bourse spaces filled is the prediction for the second annual Coast Counties Coin Carnival, to be held at the Santa Cruz, Calif., Civic Auditorium May 6-7, according to Co-Chairmen Eldon Beaulieu and Denis N. # Eglit Series . . .

ity with our other national heroes, on which occasion a medal was struck.

A beautiful medal was struck by the Paris mint in their issues honoring illustrious persons. On the obverse is the facing bust of Lee and his name, and the dates 1807-1870 around the edge. To the right in the field is the designer's name P. Lenoir. The reverse has a blank center surrounded by a cluster of oak leaves. It is 68mm. and may be obtained from the Administration des Monnaies et Medailles in Paris.

Although the Confederate Congress approved an act on October 13, 1862, which provided for the bestowing of medals and badges for distinctive service on the field of battle there is no record of any medals having been prepared, issued or conferred. There are, however, various privately issued pieces that are described and illustrated in Bauman L. Belden's Monograph "War Medals of the Confederacy."

In recent years there have been numbers of replicas issued of the Confederate Seal, the Confederate Half Dollar and the Confederate Cent, which must be regarded as medals or tokens. Replicas have also been issued of a Confederate quarter and dime, which denominations are pure fantasy as there is no historical basis for the issuance of such coins, which does exist in connection with the cent and half-dollar.

Robert E. Lee's birthplace, St. Ratford, at Stratford, Va., is commemorated on this medal.

In connection with the centennial observance of the Civil War it is already apparent that there will be any number of commemorative tokens and medals issued to honor the Blue and the Gray and the great heroes, political and military, of that painful period in American history, when the United States was welded into a nation.

Schulman Protests New Customs Rules In Force

By Hans M. F. Schulman

I have just been advised of the new customs regulations which seem to be in force during a short period already and of which we have been only recently informed.

As has been in force for a long time the importation of coins struck after 1933 in gold is prohibited and is only permitted by special license which must be obtained from the Bureau of the Mint. Now the EXPORTATION of gold coins of 1933 or later mintage is also prohibited.

Hans Schulman

Of course, if the importation is not allowed, it is understandable that the exportation is not permitted, or even "should not exist".

Unfortunately through illegal sources much of the not permitted material enters into the country. Most of the modern gold coins enter into the country through regular travellers and the naval or armed forces or merchant marine who pick these coins up overseas completely unaware that the importation into the United States is not permitted.

Not wishing to lose the money invested, they enter these few coins without declaring them upon their entry and dispose of them through the regular store trade.

Personally I regret that this law has been proclaimed. The importation and exportation of these coins has always been a matter of collectors wanting them and I do not know of any instance where these coins were bought

EASY TO USE — FAST
ECONOMICAL
ACTUALLY CLEANS
IN SECONDS

Useful for cleaning all kinds of coins, but particularly adapted to cleaning coins of copper or nickel.

Does not add shine but brings out natural color, including original brilliance if it is still there under tarnish or coating. Tarnish vanishes and dull or dark uncirculated coins become brilliant uncirculated coins. It does this in seconds. You will be amazed.

This product, the result of years of experiment, can be used safely on valuable coins to improve their appearance and increase their value.

On sale in many leading stores in 4-oz. bottles, with full directions, at $1.00.

If your dealer does not yet have it, send us $1.00 for a 3-oz. bottle (enough to clean hundreds of coins), carefully packed, unbreakable bottle, postpaid to any address in the U.S. or Canada.

The appearance of worn coins, large cents, small cents, etc., can be greatly improved by "highlighting", (contrasting light and dark). Use the Victory Miracle Cloth for this only 50c postpaid.

SPECIAL OFFER TO DEALERS

We want you to try "CCC" on your counter. It Sells! Send $4.00 for six 4-oz. bottles (postpaid in the U.S.).

purely for gold hoarding or other "gold-reasons".

A large part of the import was again sold to European buyers and to people who did not see these coins in their own countries. The margin this business left was always a considerable amount and which came into the hands of legal and regular American business men.

I have seen thousands of Mexican coins in regular coin stores and I have seen them bought by the regular collector. In all my visits I never came across a man who bought more than a few of one type or date.

In a time where our president wants to induce American business to pick up foreign trade, this regulation is contrary to American interest.

I feel that what is a coin for collectors or what is not should be decided by an international numismatist who assists the Bureau of the Mint. I want to mention a few coins which are rare collectors items which are at present not permitted to be imported or traded:

1. Saudi Arabia 4 sovereigns 1947 struck at the Philadelphia mint. This coin, used in Saudi Arabia by Aramco, was melted by the Arabs and very few items are available. Although its gold value is $32 or thereabouts, the coins sell from $170 to $250 in auction.

2. The 1 sovereign of the same type with about $8 worth of gold sells from $125 to $135.

3. Peru 100 Soles 1950 which is a very scarce year with only a few hundred struck and sells around 100 dollars for about $45 worth of gold, and many more examples can be given.

I as an international numismatist feel that these and many others are collectors items, like the extremely rare 5 pounds 1938 of King Farouk's wedding of which there were only 1000 struck and which brings over $300 on the open market.

In the old days European collectors and dealers approached the American coin dealer for the South American, Mexican gold coins because of the geographic location. Now with the permission for export not available, these demands will go through Mexico City, through Montreal, through the free market in Curacao and Montevideo etc. etc. and the legitimate dealers and thus Uncle Sam are the losers.

Nobody gains from the regulation and only an expert numismatist can judge which coins should not be imported and exported.

I feel that the Austrian 4 and 1 ducat pieces which were restruck from old dies should not be accepted because they harm the collecting field and are not genuine collectors-coins but the many South American items are collectors' items and bring in a good honest dollar to Uncle Sam.

Congratulations to John Ford with the birth of a baby girl, who as I have been told shows already interest in the rare and special American coin series. I was greatly depressed to hear that good old friend, Doc. Emrick, passed away. Doc and I spent many a nice numismatic hour together. My sincere sympathies go to the family.

I am pleased to have received from Richard Paull an essay on the Evolution of the American dollar now so important in this complicated financial era. The dollar is really the pivot around which ours and many other economies are turning and the historic research of this "dollar" is of greatest importance.

The historic research of the American dollar could forestall many mistakes in our future financing. This numismatic and economic research of the dollar concerns everybody.

The public by knowing the groundwork of the dollar can better determine its future and therefore the recording of the foundation of this money is important. Richard Paull tells me that he will justify many mysteries of numismatic financial scope which are exploding worldwide. All this to be gathered from numismatics of the old and new eras.

(The Paull writings start in this issue of Coin World—Editor)

We noticed with pleasure that enterprising Dick Yeoman in his Whitman publications has reprinted Newell's "Royal Greek Portrait Coins" a book which originally printed by Wayte Raymond had great success and appeal and has been out of print for a long time. This was greatly needed and I compliment Dick on his judgment.

I hear that Mary Louise Fleisher will soon start on her doctors' thesis which will be a work on an untouched phase of numismatics. Mary Louise started her collection through the late David Bullock whom we still remember as if he only left us a few days ago.

Soon I will have more news for you on the Schulman tour to Europe and on the release of the Andorra coin.

Altered Coins
Jail Canadians

Two men were given two-year sentences in Vancouver, Canada, on charges of doctoring coins in what prosecutor Stewart McMorran said could have turned into a $500,000 swindle of coin collectors.

Paul Pankowe, 31, and John Romaniuk, 35, earlier pleaded not guilty.

The prosecutor said Pankowe was convicted in 1949 in the kidnapping of 66-year-old engraver Ernie Conduit who was chained to a bed for five days while masked men tried to scare him into helping with a counterfeiting plan.

McMorran said the men planned to alter ordinary coins in a manner to make them look as if they were real collectors' items.

PIECES OF EIGHT

and Pirate "COB" Money

There is probably no more romantic coin in history than the original "piece of eight". It was the standard unit of money among the bold explorers who settled and conquered the American continent and our present "dollar" is a direct descendant of the Spanish milled dollar, valued at 8 reales and also known as the "pillar dollar" or "piece of eight".

The term "two bits", etc. came from the practice of splitting the coin into pieces to make change in a money scarce economy. The resolution of June 22, 1775, authorized the first issue of Continental paper money, and provided that the notes should be payable in Spanish milled dollars, or the value thereof in gold or silver. Genuine Pillar dollars are scarce and high in price, particularly if they are in mint condition.

Some time ago a coiner in South America made a limited number of reproductions of this romantic old coin. These reproductions are extraordinarily authentic and contain the same silver contents as the originals, which they duplicate in every way. Even some experts cannot tell the difference.

We purchased the stock of what is now a collector's item in itself. They are $5.05 each, and as the years pass they will be worth much more. Wonderful conversation pieces or decorative items and a must for coin collectors in this field. There will be no more available after this stock is exhausted.

Circular milled coin, mint condition, or "cobs", $5.05 each, postpaid no C.O.D. Order by number as indicated by photographs on left. These are approximately actual size.

Penn-Ohio Formed In Summer, 1939

Founders of the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs—An association of coin club members in Pennsylvania and Ohio—turn their thoughts backwards to the beginning of the organization as the 22nd anniversary convention nears.

(The Spring, 1961, conclave will be held May 12-14 at the Webster Hall Hotel in Pittsburgh, Pa.)

The first annual meeting and outing of coin clubs in the north-eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania district was held at Geauga Lake Park on Sunday afternoon, July 9, 1939, under the auspices of the Youngstown Numismatic Club under the chairmanship of Sam J. Kabealo.

Kabealo originated the idea of the clubs from Ohio and Pennsylvania grouping into an active association. He visited clubs in the vicinity of Pittsburgh, Newcastle, Canton, Akron, Youngstown and Cleveland for this purpose, and it was decided and unanimously approved that such an organization of coin clubs be formed.

J. I. Zimmer, now of Albuquerque, N. M., presided over this first outing. Kabealo nominated Dr. Y. A. Sargis of Cleveland for president of the organization to be known as the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs and for secretary John Gregor, also of Cleveland. Kabealo was elected vice president at this first organizational meeting of the Penn-Ohio group.

The original clubs represented were: Newcastle, Akron, Youngstown, W. R. N. C. of Cleveland, Canton, Warren, Pittsburgh and the Western Pennsylvania Numismatic Society.

The registration for the initial meeting was 182 members. In the following year (1940), Kabealo was elected president of the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs. In the subsequent meetings of the club it was firmly established that without the untiring efforts of Kabealo no such organization would have been effected at this time.

He was named originator and founder of the organization that now has grown into one of the foremost numismatic organizations in the country with such activities as a spring show, summer outings and picnic and fall convention.

These annual events have been held in such towns covered by the organizational setup as Akron, Warren, Dayton, Columbus, Canton, Cleveland, Youngstown, all of Ohio, and Sharon and Pittsburgh in western Pennsylvania.

Past presidents of the Penn-Ohio have been (in order of their tenureship), Dr. Y. A. Sargis, Pittsburgh; Charles T. Bolus of Canton; A. J. Croshier, Cleveland; A. F. Smith, Youngstown; Leo M. Thomas, Ashland, Ohio; R. R. Bennighof, Ashland, Ohio; C. D. Clark, Akron; Michael Kolman Jr., Cleveland, and currently, Homer M. Swanson of Sharon, Pa.

The war interrupted regular meetings about 1941, then A. J. Croshier of Cleveland revived the group in 1951. Since that time, much credit must be given Croshier, Michael Kolman and Homer Swanson for the continued rise and success of the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs. A great deal of assistance has been given the club by Sol Kaplan, executive vice president of the Professional Numismatists Guild Inc. and James Kelly of World Numismatiques of Dayton, with their support of all the activities of the organization and for the annual donation of the best of show award, the B. Max Mehl Trophy, by the P.N.G.

Winter Haven Club Has Sixty Members

Members of the recently formed Winter Haven, Fla., Coin Club are to hold their next meeting on Tuesday, May 2, at the Winter Haven Teen Center, starting at 7:30 p.m., with their new president, Claude Ray, presiding.

The club is still accepting memberships, with more than 60 persons of all ages already enrolled.

Cents Large Till '20

Large cents were struck for Canada from 1858 to 1920.

Proof Set Holds Oddity

A double struck half dollar in a 1961 proof set is the find reported by George Jerome, Riverside, Calif.

Collector Jerome notes that all of the lettering on the coin is double as well as part of the rim on the reverse.

"Besides this obvious rarity, the reeding on the dime is most unusual," said the Californian. "The ridges are very far apart and it appears that every other ridge is missing. Other than these two items, the set is literally perfect in every way."

"The edges on every coin are razor sharp, and even the nickel is struck perfect."

Jerome, who would like to know more about the set, said he has found five 1909-S's ranging from good to very and extra fine, and several other key Lincolns. He feels, however, that his 1961 proof set is far more rare and valuable.

Out-Of-Staters Show Winners

Wisconsinites took the exhibit honors at the third annual Spring Coin Show sponsored in early April by the Freeport, Ill., Coin Club, when Robert Branigan of Beloit, Wisc., and Ralph Parker of Racine, Wisc., won the prizes.

Branigan displayed a "Stella", a gold type set, a silver type set, and a set of uncirculated Standing Liberty quarters. Parker showed a foreign gold type set.

Some 400 persons attended the show, and 14 dealers occupied occupied bourse tables. Held in the Veterans Memorial Home, the show was considered highly successful according to club president Paul Klahren, show co-chairman. Other show officials were Bill Lavelle and Stanley Miller.

Mankowski Career Distinguished

Medallist, Saltus Winner Has Works In Many Mediums

If a devotee of the art of sculpture confined himself to a tour of the works of New Yorker Bruno Mankowski . . . or, more minutely, to the medallist art contributed by the internationally-famous artist, the student would be drawn to important places throughout the United States . . . and to exquisite medals . . . to Steuben glass . . . to the U.S. Capitol . . . to Shrub Oak, N.Y. . . . to the Metropolitan Museum . . . to the ships, Independence and Constitution.

Numismatists have long considered him one of the finest artists in the area of medallist art—and this was confirmed earlier this year when he was presented with the J. Sanford Saltus award medal by the American Numismatic Society in recognition of his contribution in the medallist art field.

This award is considered one of the highest in the numismatic world, and has been a tradition since 1913.

Mankowski is a fellow in the American Numismatic Society.

A native of Germany, he was born there October 30, 1902, and received his early training as a sculptor from his father, Tadeusz Mankowski. He attended art instruction in the Municipal and State Art Schools in Berlin and in the Beaux Arts Institute in New York.

The latter became possible when Mankowski came to America in 1928. Five years later he became a citizen. Nine years later he was a member of the U.S. army and served until his discharge in 1945.

Medals designed by Mankowski include the one for Medallist Art Company's 50th anniversary, the village of Oak Brook, Ill.; Maxwell M. Upson's 50th anniversary, Light's Diamond Jubilee, British War Relief Society's golf tournament, Dr. John Robert Gregg, Nitrogen Safety Award, Henry L. de Forest, W. B. G. H. medal and numerous bronze case and carved ivory medals and portrait plaques.

He sculptured the panel for the U. S. post office and the agriculture building at Chesterfield, S. C.; the bronze war memorial at Macomb's Junior High School, N. Y., is Mankowski's work.

He did work for the New York World's Fair and decorative fig-heads for the U.S.S. Independence and the U.S.S. Constitution.

Upon occasion, Mankowski designs for the Medallist Art company and for Steuben Glass. His work is also found at the Metropolitan Museum in New York.

Stone carvings by the New Yorker include those at Michigan State College in East Lansing, Mich., the U. S. Capitol in Washington where he reconstructed in marble the pediment, the World War monument at Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Va., and at Loyola Seminary, Shrub Oak, N. Y.

His exhibits have been seen at the National Sculpture Society, in which he is a fellow, the National Academy of Design (he is an associate in this group), the Metropolitan Museum in New York, Montclair Art Museum, Syracuse

Museum of Fine Arts, Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Corcoran Gallery, Pennsylvania Museum, Philbrook Art Center, Tulsa, Okla., Architectural League, and the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

He is a member of the Allied Artists of America, the Architectural League, American Artists Professional League.

Bruno Mankowski's work here demonstrates why the New York sculptor has been awarded a long list of the nation's top awards over the past quarter century, and why he holds an international reputation for outstanding contributions to the field of medallist art. His honors include the J. Sanford Saltus Award medal, presented to him earlier this year by the American Numismatic Association in New York. His bas-reliefs won the honor for excellence in the field of the art of the medal.

The Saltus award is the most current of Mankowski's honors; others include the Lindsey Morris

Polley To Refund Coin Journal Cash

Announcement of the plan to reimburse all subscribers to the former "Coin Journal" of Abilene, Texas, was made today by David Polley, now of Austin, Texas.

Ex-publisher Polley has advised Coin World: "All subscribers to the former Coin Journal will receive a complete refund for their subscriptions. As many as possible will be refunded each month until all monies are returned in full."

The pocket-sized "Coin Journal," printed on book paper stock, started as a monthly and then planned to go semi-monthly for a period of several months last spring. It suspended publication in the early summer; an attempt was made to rejuvenate it early last fall, but that also failed.

Polley has taken other employment and is endeavoring to work out his back payments to subscribers as rapidly as possible under present circumstances, he advises Coin World.

Reader Advised Cleaning Of Coins A Moot Question

J. Philipp of Milwaukee, Wisc., has a few questions for this column:

"In a few ads in 'Coin World', coins are advertised as showing evidence of having been cleaned. Does this admit to have a darkly toned coin lightened in color or what?"

"Another question, how can a collector or dealer know if he has small or large date 1960 proof sets without opening them? They are being advertised to buy or sell unopened."

"I have purchased a Brown and Dunn grading book and so far they seem to have done the best job of helping to grade coins. Other publications give either vague descriptions or pictures just as vague."

ANSWER: On the cleaning proposition, it could mean cleaned of tarnish, cleaned of dirt, or cleaned of almost anything. In any case, a coin that has evidently been cleaned will have an "unnatural" finish, and hence is not as desirable as one that has not been touched that way. Cleaning that leaves no evidence is another matter.

The old timers were practically unanimous in saying "Never clean a coin", although they would certainly have made exceptions for coins that were too dirty or corroded to otherwise identify. But even then, they would have been extremely careful.

If a coin that is scratched or marred is cleaned, the cleaning will only make the scratches more evident and the coin has not been helped. It will also make worn spots on a coin stand out. A sincere collector wants his coins to look natural, and cleaning does the opposite.

We were told once that baking soda would clean silver coins and not hurt them. We tried it. It was true, the coins were not scratched by the baking soda (some cleaners are abrasive and will harm the coin), but the result was disagreeable. The coins had an artificial shine that in no way resembled natural lustre, and the worn ones just looked more worn as well as shiny.

Various cleaners are on the market. We know nothing about them. If you want to experiment, do so with a coin of no value before you try cleaning a good one. As for us, when we are shown two identical coins, one of which has been cleaned and one not, and we can't tell the difference, then we will give some consideration to the matter.

All of which is not a direct answer to your question, except for the "or what?" The term "cleaning" can mean almost any "treatment" of a coin, chemically or otherwise, that changes its appearance, whether from dark to light or any other way.

Regarding the question of sealed proof sets, you have our sympathy. We don't know, either. It is possible that because a proof set came from the Mint early it is assumed to be small date, but if they are not opened, the outer envelope, that is, nobody will ever know for sure. Insisting on unopened brown envelopes is silly.

Possibly somebody started that idea because he hoped to get a "freak" set of some kind and knew he wouldn't if the dealer saw it first.

We would very much like to know how a dealer can advertise a "gem" set if he has not opened it to find out. If all sets were "gem" they would not need to be advertised as such, since everybody would take it for granted. And now some dealers are refusing to guarantee satisfaction if the customer opens the brown envelope. They won't take them back if something is wrong with the set. How will the customer know, if he doesn't open it?

As for your comment on Brown and Dunn, we agree wholeheartedly that they have done the best job so far, although by no means the best job that can be done. They are the first to be really specific which is what the average collector needs, rather than vague generalities about "high spots". Let's hope they come out with a second edition, with improvements arrived at by consulting experts of 20 to 30 years of experience.

PRESENTING A NEW KIND OF COIN BOOK FOR ALL COLLECTORS, INVESTORS AND COLLECTOR INVESTORS!

UNCOVERED!

The prices of uncirculated U.S. Coins for each separate year since 1935! A fascinating year to year history of coin prices that will open your eyes! Learn what the yearly price change percentage has been on each coin. Many surprises in figures revealed!

WHAT WILL YOUR EXPENSIVE COLLECTION, YOUR COIN INVESTMENTS, BE WORTH IN THE YEARS AHEAD... WHAT ARE THEIR "MATURITY" DATES AND VALUES?

For the first time this priceless data is made available in "The Profit March Of Your Coins From 1935 To 1968." Here you will find a scientific and accurate scale of future values based upon what each coin has done in the past. Up until now such predictions were based on the mere pulling of a hypothetical figure out of the air. You'll see how coin prices change over the years, the price change percentages, coinage totals, projected prices from 1961 to 1968, comments on the future... on each and every uncirculated coin, roll, or proof set.

Reading this guide will leave you with a new respect for your investment.

You'll see what the prices were back in 1936, 1945, 1950... or any other year! How they have changed, startlingly, in the thirties, forties and fifties... and what they will be in the next four or eight years!

Up until now, the factors involved in coin futuristics have not been presented so there has been no yardstick with which to measure the possibilities. Now revealing pages mathematically prove that most investments in coins will, regardless of present confusion, produce future yields that will far exceed expectations!

Not only the coin investor, but the collector should have this guide in his possession! Collections have a way of growing and growing until they represent a tremendous investment. If you have such a valuable collection or have set aside rolls, you should know how long it will be before your coins are worth a certain amount of money... enough, perhaps, for college educations... travel... emergencies... or even partial retirement (it has been done). You'll get the answers when you have this unusual book before you. You will be shown the individual price pattern of each coin, the length of each cycle and the frequency of change. With this set pattern you can observe how long the upsurges and the downsurges lasted in the past and govern future actions accordingly.

"THE PROFIT MARCH OF YOUR COINS FROM 1935 TO 1968"

LEARN WHICH COINS ARE LIKELY TO INCREASE IN PRICE FIRST. WHICH WILL OFFER THE BEST SECURITY OVER THE YEARS.

Inasmuch as the past is but a mirror of the future, it would behoove any coin collector or investor to seriously review the past price history! Such records have always been available in other investment fields! Now for the first time you have the same opportunity! Don't guess or worry any longer because of a lack of investment knowledge!

GET THE FIRST AND ONLY GUIDE OF ITS KIND!

Robert Streck of Elizabeth, N. J., asks how to store BU Jefferson nickels in order to keep them bright. He is considering plastic tubes or transparent polyethylene, and wants advice.

ANSWER: If you can get a copy of the October 27 issue of "Coin World", read the article on page 43 by Dr. F. Steven Epps, a collector and chemist. He says for holders or containers for long-term storage, the only safe materials are ethylenecellulose, polystyrene, and polyethylene, and they must be airtight, to keep BU coins that way. He says some other worthwhile things, also, but too much to repeat here.

On April 6, we printed an answer about an English coin or token called "Hanover Jack", and said if we received more information we would print it. Russell Rulau, token expert, has come to our aid and we quote from him, as follows (briefed):

The piece is a game counter, not a token or coin. The design of Victoria and the king on horseback was popular with 19th century British counter manufacturers. They were normally 22 mm size with reeded edges and made of brass to resemble the gold sovereign. They occur with many other dates than 1837, Rulau having pieces dated 1830, 1840 and 1861 in his collection, and having seen others.

The counters were used as poker chips are used, in games of chance. The sovereign size were commonest, and usually worth less than a dollar for that reason. Rulau is not sure about the political angle, but feels that the British were glad that Hanover became separated from the English throne when Victoria became Queen (Hanover law required male succession) since the English common people never cared much for the German Royal ties, hence the Hanover angle was somewhat of a joke.

He has seen the "To Hanover" muled with at least one U.S. counter dated 1850. He also says that game counters often touched on political subjects, to help them sell.

Incidentally, for no reason at all, we have not mentioned that the gentleman on horseback is usually accompanied by a dragon, and William Eckert of Staten Island, N. Y., wrote to ask if his was different because it had a peculiar creature with two heads and a forked tail along with the knight.

ANSWER: No, the creature usually goes with the king, why, Rulau doesn't mention, and we don't know.

Fla., writes that her husband, a collector of six months' standing, went through a relative's pocket change and found a 1916-D dime in very good shape. He credits his good luck to checking his friends' change before they do, and says collectors should turn all their acquaintances into "look-out scouts".

COMMENT: Mr. Hope makes a good deal of sense. However, the element of luck must always be present, since some people have been looking for years and never found a really scarce coin (we won't say "rare", as that is another matter and a question of definition).

Sixty Pieces Unknown; Readers' Help Solicited

By John M. Coffee Jr.
P. O. Box 1204
Boston, 4, Mass.

The American Vecturist Association, a group of collectors who are interested in the field of transportation tokens, have published a comprehensive catalog listing all known U.S. transportation tokens.

In the course of compiling this work, a number of tokens that are definitely transportation pieces still remain unidentified as to where they were issued.

We would be greatly indebted to anyone who might be familiar with any of the tokens that are listed below.

Full credit for identification of any unknown piece will be given here in the STM & OPMC page, as well as in The Fare Box, the official monthly publication of the A.V.A. (All dimensions are given in 1/16ths).

The tokens, numbered in sequence, are described in special listing code terms.

The capital letters following the number indicate the material out of which the token is made as follows:

A, aluminum; B, brass; Bz, bronze; F, fibre; K, copper; L, lead; Wm, white metal.

The figures following the metal key indicate the diametrical size; the final abbreviations are for the device or symbol in the center of the token such as Sd (solid), Pc (pierced), Ch (center hole), Cs (cross), Ct (crescent), Tr (triangle).

Ohioan Wants Background On Transportation Token

Identification and background for this Cleveland east aluminum transportation token of 1906 is sought by Larry Freeman, Cleveland, Outside

Larry Freeman, Parma, Ohio, seeks information concerning a 1906 transportation token with the legend, "Municipal Traction Co., Cleveland," and "3 cent ticket, 1906."

"Some say it may be a Tom Johnson political token," said Freeman. "I was told when he ran for mayor of Cleveland he had been elected on the promise of a three cent fare."

John M. Coffee Jr., editor of The Farebox, voice of the American Vecturist Association in Boston, said Johnson ran for mayor in Cleveland on a three cent fare program, and was elected.

Editor Coffee said he believed the token Freeman has discovered is probably a political gimmick given out during the campaign to emphasize Tom Johnson's political platform, but he, too, is interested in learning more about it.

Editor Coffee points out that the Cleveland tokens are interesting because there is a regularly-issued aluminum three cent token issued in large quantity, dated 1906.

"Since the fare didn't go into effect till 1907, I've always wondered why some of the tokens are dated 1906 (others are dated 1907 and 1908 which is logical)," the Boston authority said. "The diameter is 88 mm. or three and 7/16 inches with the center hole 34 mm. or 1 5/16 inches.

only rare one of the series is the large (23mm) 1908 token of which there are only some four or five known to exist."

Larry Freeman's main interest is tokens, transportation, parking and coal companies and company store tokens.

His self-described "pedigree" includes membership in the American Numismatic Association, American Vecturist Association, Western Reserve Numismatic Club, Penn Ohio Coin Club, Medals and Obsolete Paper Money Collector, charter membership in the Society of Token, Medal and Obsolete Paper Money Collectors and a charter member of Coin World.

Numismatist Plans Chester Token Series

By Daniel DiMichael
Coatesville, Pa

A token is a sign of authority and identification which is shown by giving a small stamped-shaped disc made of metal, cellulose, or plastic used for the purpose of advertising business and products, and in many cases is a substitute for currency used by different businesses such as transportation fares, payment of sales tax, bridge passage and amusement fares.

In my past experiences of talking with old timers of Chester county, I find there has been some of these well known businesses, which have issued such tokens, located in this area of Chester County.

Collecting tokens has developed into a very fascinating hobby for me. I have spent many enjoyable hours working with tokens and have found many interesting stories in the backgrounds from which these tokens originated.

Many articles have been written in coin journals on the history of different tokens, but there are no articles about the tokens of Chester County, Pa. I am writing this article to find further information and uncover some of these tokens and medals which have existed in this area so I can extend this information into an article on "Chester County Tokens."

Listed below are a few tokens which I have collected and value very highly from Chester County:

Coatesville—Size, 19mm; material, aluminum; obverse (front), E.H.A. 5 Coatesville, Pa.; reverse (back), same as obverse.

No information is known on this token.

Coatesville: Size, 16mm; with hole in center; material, zinc plated with silver; obverse (front), Coatesville Hospital; Coatesville, Pa.; reverse (back), radio token, Dahlberg.

This token is used by the patients of the Coatesville Hospital to play bed radios.

Exton: Size, 31mm; material, aluminum; obverse (front), Spin out to Dick Thomas U.S. 30, Exton, Pa.; reverse (back), Round & round she goes where she stops nobody knows—YOU PAY.

The obverse has a little ball extruding outward so the token can be spun and on the reverse there is an arrow pointing to indicate the individual who is the loser.

Dick Thomas's Brick Oven is a popular eating place in Exton, Pa.

Malvern: Size, 26mm; material, aluminum; obverse, Kimel's Department Store, Malvern, Pa.; reverse, good for 5c in trade.

West Chester: Size, 25mm, holed; material, brass; obverse, presented by Wood Bros. hats, caps, boots, shoes, & clothing, West Chester; reverse, in commemoration of the Chester County Fair held in West Chester, Pa.; September 21-22-23, 1887.

Wood Brother's opened their store April 8, 1883, at the corner of Walnut & Market in West Chester, Pa. The store sold hats, caps, boots, shoes and other goods to outfit men and boys. The name of the brothers were Thomas H. Wood and A. Charles Wood. Thomas Wood became sole owner February 1, 1888.

Canadian Guide..

less idealized sort of illustrations possible with good photographic techniques; the change is quite striking, sharpness sometimes being sacrificed but the outlines of a pen-and-ink diagram being replaced by the body of a coin.

For many newcomers to Canadian numismatics—and not a few old-timers—the most fascinating section of the new "Guide Book" should be the one depicting previously unlisted Canadian tokens. Older families almost invariably have a few of these interesting pieces tucked away in desk and bureau drawers, but until the Canadian Numismatic Publishing Institute numbering sequence was introduced in the "Guide Book", there existed no really general or accessible listing or attempted pricing of the many pieces newer than those covered by Breton. The listing is far from complete, the publishers no doubt would concede, but the additions themselves should prove an interesting study as new attention is focused on this rewarding area of popular numismatics.

The "decimal coinage", the dated series of familiar Canadian "change", is more popular than ever, what of it? The big section from page 28 to page 82 no doubt is destined to receive the most handling of any in the new "Guide Book"; for most readers, it would justify the price of the whole book. Here are treated in greater detail than ever before the dated sequences of Canada and Newfoundland, with considerable new detail being depicted through choice enlargements.

(Of prices, let it suffice to record that the established collector will do well to permit himself more than a moment of reflection and ascertain whether or not the insurance on his collection really reflects the unbelievable upward trends.)

An example of the replacement of line drawings for actual photographs in the 1961-1962 Guide Book is this page in the French Regime section. Line drawings have been completely eliminated in this unit in the new edition.

Examples of the sharp, clear photographs in the new Taylor-James Guide Book is the contrasting Canada 25 cents, Elizabeth II, illustrations. The photo on the left shows the small date and flat rim; its counterpart the large date and the wide edge. The Guide Book explains the diameter of the 1953 25 cent piece increased from .930 inches to .940, giving the wider "flat" or rim.

The Variety Section, nine liberally illustrated pages of "varieties and variants", probably is the most sensible approach to the cataloguing of such popular pieces, a section apart from the simplified listing by types and dates—but, if prices are an indication, certainly not a section to be ignored.

The section on bank notes, always a popular one because of the striking combination of historic interest and visual appeal, shows the results of several years' efforts.

The Dominion of Canada and Bank of Canada series are adequately reported, illustrated and valued, but the most important contribution to the new "Guide Book" is in the area, so long neglected, of the chartered and private banks, and their currencies, a majority of which would be negotiable today.

Negotiable and the "broken bank" notes are separately listed, alphabetically, by banks. Fairly good listings of the later dates and varieties are available for a number of the better known banks, with attempted pricing. The listings themselves, of course, will fill a long-felt need, and the illustrations, indeed most welcome, should attract many to this significant and still under-priced numismatic field.

The introduction is essentially that of the previous edition, with the enlarged illustrations of the regal coinage in the various standard "conditions". Pricing covers up to six grades, and prices are supplemented by mint statistics.

Here is a catalogue that the novice will pick up and find impossible to set down, while the experienced student of Canadian numismatics will add it to his shelf with definite interest, knowing that it brings the market picture up to date and serves to document several areas to which otherwise he would not easily have access.

Such a book is essential to anyone interested in the full Canadian series.

At $1.95, a truly remarkable buy.

WILL TRADE OR SELL AT DISCOUNT

Most of remaining coins not sold from my ads in Coin World March 30th and April 6th editions on page 20, and my ad April 6th on page 53 under BARBER HALVES.

Take a ten percent discount on any items except the Unc. coins, most of which were sold; the Trade Dollars and Proof sets; all of which were sold, and the Lincoln cents and 1909-S Indian.

I had as many as fifty of some of these dates and only one or two of others, but I have returned very few checks so far.

Don't be afraid to offer any decent material in trade on any of these coins or a cash offer on any large groups.

I also have a large number of Barbers, Buffalos, and Indians that were not listed. Write me.

I sold completely out of 1913 1 Buffalo Unc. nickels and would like a price on one or a hundred if you have them.

I also need Trade Dollars, Half Cents, Lincoln and Mercury keys, 1932-DS quarters and any other worthwhile material.

Describe what you have and then price it higher than most dealers can afford to pay, but leaving me room for a small profit, and chances are I'll buy.

I don't need any junk, any small dates, any unc. coins that aren't twenty or more years of age. Write today.

Almost Everyone Prefers America's First Family of Coin Albums

THE LIBRARY OF COINS

By Any Standard, Still The Best!

Complete visibility and complete protection, the two most-wanted features of a coin album, are presented for the first time by THE LIBRARY OF COINS. Bound like books, handsome and compact, each Library of Coins volume displays and protects its coins between two sliding panels of clear, tough plastic. Each coin "porthole" has printed next to it full data on mint mark and quantity minted. Each volume contains a brief background story on the coins, giving both the novice and advanced collector helpful information, including a listing of the rare dates.

Measuring 8 1/4" x 6 1/4", the volumes are low priced, sturdily manufactured, and permanently bound in a variety of identifying colors for the various denominations. Their compact size permits the storing of a large coin collection in very small space. Backbones are clearly gold stamped so that they are as readily identifiable as are books.

The Library of Coins represents the first major innovation in high grade coin albums in more than 30 years, and was several years in development. Designed by numismatists, the Library of Coins is designed to satisfy the needs and desires of numismatists. Write for descriptive circular on the Library of Coins.
